PROXY STATEMENT
For the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on May 8, 2008 at 8:30 a.m. at the offices of Goodwin Procter LLP, 53 State Street, Boston, MA 02109

April 8, 2008

Proxies in the form enclosed with this Proxy Statement are solicited by the Board of Directors of Insulet Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at 8:30 a.m., local time, on Thursday, May 8, 2008 at the offices of Goodwin Procter LLP, 53 State Street, Boston, MA 02109, or at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the Annual Meeting).

An Annual Report to Stockholders, containing financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, is being mailed together with this Proxy Statement to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Annual Report, however, is not a part of the proxy solicitation material.

As more fully described in this Proxy Statement, the purposes of the Annual Meeting are to (i) elect three (3) Class I directors for three-year terms; (ii) to approve an amendment to the Company's 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan to increase the aggregate number of shares authorized for issuance under such plan by 600,000 shares of the Company's common stock; (iii) ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008; and (iv) consider and vote upon such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 24, 2008 (the Record Date) will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of that date, 27,532,798 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company (the Common Stock) were issued and outstanding, and there were 60 stockholders of record. The holders of Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share on any proposal presented at the Annual Meeting. You may vote in one of the following three ways whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting: (1) by completing, signing and dating the accompanying proxy card and returning it in the postage-prepaid envelope enclosed for that purpose, (2) by completing your proxy using the toll-free telephone number listed on the proxy card, or (3) by completing your proxy on the Internet at the address listed on the proxy card. Votes made by phone or on the Internet must be received by 11:59 p.m., local time, on May 7, 2008. If you attend the Annual Meeting, you may vote in person even if you have previously returned your proxy card or completed your proxy by phone or on the Internet.

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before it is voted. Proxies may be revoked by (a) filing with the Secretary of the Company, before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting, a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy, (b) duly completing a later-dated proxy relating to the same shares and delivering it to the Secretary of the Company before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting, or (c) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy). Any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be sent so as to be delivered to Insulet Corporation, 9 Oak Park Drive, Bedford, Massachusetts 01730, Attention: Secretary, before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting.

The representation in person or by proxy of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Votes withheld from any nominee, abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present or represented for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the Annual Meeting. A non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner votes on one proposal but does not vote on another proposal because, with respect to such other proposal, the nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Table of Contents

For Proposal 1, the election of Class I directors, the nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on such matter at the Annual Meeting shall be elected as directors. For each of Proposal 2, the approval of an amendment to the Company's 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, and Proposal 3, the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008, an affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present, in person or represented by proxy, and voting on each such matter is required for approval. Abstentions are included in the number of shares present or represented and voting on each matter. Broker non-votes are not considered voted for the particular matter and have the effect of reducing the number of affirmative votes required to achieve a majority for such matter by reducing the total number of shares from which the majority is calculated.

The persons named as attorneys-in-fact in the proxies, Duane DeSisto and Carsten Boess, were selected by the Board of Directors and are officers of the Company. All properly executed proxies returned in time to be counted at the Annual Meeting will be voted by such persons at the Annual Meeting. Where a choice has been specified on the proxy with respect to the foregoing matters, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted in accordance with the specifications. If no such specifications are indicated, such proxies will be voted FOR the election of the director nominees, the approval of the amendment to the Company's 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, and the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP.

Aside from the election of directors, the Board of Directors knows of no other matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting. If any other matter should be presented at the Annual Meeting upon which a vote properly may be taken, shares represented by all proxies received by the Board of Directors will be voted with respect thereto in accordance with the judgment of the persons named as attorneys-in-fact in the proxies.

The Company's Board of Directors currently consists of eight members. The Company's certificate of incorporation divides the Board of Directors into three classes. One class is elected each year for a term of three years. The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, has nominated Alison de Bord, Regina Sommer and Joseph Zakrzewski, and recommended that each be elected to the Board of Directors as a Class I director, each to hold office until the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in the year 2011 and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified or until the earlier of his death, resignation or removal. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees would be unable or unwilling to serve, but if any nominee should for any reason be unable or unwilling to serve, the proxies will be voted for the election of such other person for the office of director as the Board of Directors may recommend in the place of such nominee. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received by them for the nominees named below.

number of meetings of the Board of Directors and the total number of meetings of all committees of the Board of Directors on which he served during fiscal 2007. The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each committee has a charter that has been approved by the Board of Directors. Each committee is required to review the appropriateness of its charter at least annually.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of Steve Sobieski, Charles Liamos and Alison de Bord. Mr. Sobieski is the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee meets the independence requirements promulgated by The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. (Nasdaq) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including Rule 10A-3(b)(1) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate and that Messrs. Sobieski and Liamos each qualify as an audit committee financial expert under the rules of the SEC. Stockholders should understand that this designation is a disclosure requirement of the SEC related to his experience and understanding with respect to certain accounting and auditing matters. The designation does not impose upon Messrs. Sobieski and Liamos any duties, obligations or liability that are greater than are generally imposed on other members of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors, and designation as an audit committee financial expert pursuant to this SEC requirement does not affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the Audit Committee or the Board of Directors.

The purposes of the Audit Committee are to, among other functions, oversee our accounting and financial reporting processes and the audits of our financial statements, and take, or recommend that our board of directors take, appropriate action to oversee the qualifications, independence and performance of our independent auditors. The Audit Committee is also responsible for preparing the Audit Committee Report for inclusion in this and subsequent proxy statements in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

The Audit Committee met eight times during the year ended December 31, 2007, and did not take any action by unanimous written consent. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement and is also available at the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at <http://www.insulet.com>.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Gary Eichhorn, Ross Jaffe, M.D. and Jonathan Silverstein. Mr. Eichhorn is the Chairman of the Compensation Committee. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Compensation Committee meets the independence requirements promulgated by Nasdaq. The purposes of the Compensation Committee are to, among other functions, discharge our board of directors' responsibilities relating to compensation of our directors and executives, oversee our overall compensation programs and prepare the compensation committee report required to be included in our annual proxy statement. See the section entitled Executive and Director Compensation for a more detailed description of the policies and procedures of the Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Committee met seven times during the year ended December 31, 2007, and did not take any action by unanimous written consent. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a current copy of which is available at the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at <http://www.insulet.com>.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of Ross Jaffe, M.D., Alison de Bord and Gary Eichhorn. Dr. Jaffe is the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. individuals qualified to become board members, recommend that our board of directors select the director nominees for election at each annual meeting of stockholders and periodically review and recommend any changes to our corporate governance guidelines to our board of directors.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met five times during the year ended December 31, 2007, and did not take any action by unanimous written consent. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a current copy of which is available at the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at <http://www.insulet.com>.

As described below in the section entitled "Policies Governing Director Nominations," the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders.

For more corporate governance information, you are invited to access the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website available at <http://www.insulet.com>.

Independence of Members of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee have determined that our director nominees (Ms. de Bord, Ms. Sommers and Mr. Zakrzewski) and our non-management directors (Dr. Jaffe and Messrs. Eichhorn, Lianos and Sobieski) are independent within the meaning of the director independence standards of both Nasdaq and the SEC, including Rule 10A-3(b)(1) under the Exchange Act.

Executive Sessions of Independent Directors

Non-management members of the Board of Directors meet without the employee director of the Company following most regularly scheduled in-person meetings of the Board of Directors. These executive sessions include only those directors who meet the independence requirements promulgated by Nasdaq, and Dr. Jaffe is responsible for chairing these executive sessions.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2007, Dr. Jaffe and Messrs. Eichhorn and Silverstein served as members of the Compensation Committee. No member of the Compensation Committee was an employee or former employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or had any relationship with the Company requiring disclosure herein.

During 2007, no executive officer of the Company served as: (i) a member of the compensation committee (or other committee of the board of directors performing equivalent functions or, in the absence of any such committee, the entire board of directors) of another entity, one of whose executive officers served on the Compensation Committee of the Company; (ii) a director of another entity, one of whose executive officers served on the Compensation Committee of the Company; or (iii) a member of the compensation committee (or other committee of the board of directors performing equivalent functions or, in the absence of any such committee, the entire board of directors) of another entity, one of whose executive officers served as a director of the Company.

Policies Governing Director Nominations

Director Qualifications

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for reviewing with the Board of Directors from time to time the appropriate qualities, skills and characteristics desired of members of the Board of Directors in the context of the needs of the business and current make-up of the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee must be satisfied that each committee-recommended nominee shall have the highest personal and professional integrity, shall have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment, and shall be most effective, in conjunction with the continuing directors, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the stockholders. In addition to these minimum qualifications, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will recommend that the Board of Directors select persons for nomination to help ensure that a majority of the Board of Directors shall be independent, in accordance with the standards established by Nasdaq, and that at least one member of the Audit Committee shall have such experience, education and other qualifications necessary to qualify as an audit committee financial expert, as defined by SEC rules. Finally, in addition to any other standards the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may deem appropriate from time to time for the overall structure and composition of the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may consider whether a nominee has direct experience in the industry or in the markets in which the Company operates and whether the nominee, if elected, will assist in achieving a mix of Board members that represents a diversity of background and experience.

Process for Identifying and Evaluating Director Nominees

The Board of Directors is responsible for approving nominees to the Board. The Board of Directors delegates the selection and nomination process to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, with the expectation that other members of the Board of Directors, and of management, will be requested to take part in the process as appropriate.

Generally, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee identifies candidates for director nominees in consultation with management, through the use of search firms or other advisors, through the recommendations submitted by stockholders or through such other methods as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee deems to be helpful to identify candidates. Once candidates have been identified, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee confirms that the candidates meet all of the minimum qualifications for director nominees established by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may gather information about the candidates through interviews, detailed questionnaires, background checks or any other means that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee deems to be helpful in the evaluation process. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee then meets as a group to discuss and evaluate the qualities and skills of each candidate, both on an individual basis and taking into account the overall composition and needs of the Board of Directors. Based on the results of the evaluation process, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommends candidates for the Board of Directors approval as director nominees for election to the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also recommends candidates to the Board of Directors for appointment to the committees of the Board of Directors.

Procedures for Recommendation of Director Nominees by Stockholders

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider director nominee candidates who are recommended by stockholders of the Company. Stockholders, in submitting recommendations to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for director nominee candidates, must follow the following procedures:

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee must receive any such recommendation for nomination not less than 120 calendar days prior to the first anniversary of the date the Company's proxy statement was released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting.

All recommendations for nomination must be in writing and include the following:

The name and address of record of the stockholder.

A representation that the stockholder is a record holder of our securities, or if the stockholder is not a record holder, evidence of ownership in accordance with Rule 14a-8(b)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Committee from time to time and set forth in the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee charter.

A description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and the proposed director candidate.

The consent of the proposed director candidate (i) to be named in the proxy statement relating to the Company's annual meeting of stockholders and (ii) to serve as a director if elected at such annual meeting.

Any other information regarding the proposed director candidate that is required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to SEC rules.

Nominations must be sent to the attention of the Secretary of the Company by U.S. mail (including courier or expedited delivery service) to:

Insulet Corporation
9 Oak Park Drive
Bedford, Massachusetts 01730
Attn: Secretary of Insulet Corporation

The Secretary of the Company will promptly forward any such nominations to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. As a requirement to being considered for nomination to the Company's Board of Directors, a candidate may need to comply with the following minimum procedural requirements:

A candidate must undergo a comprehensive private investigation background check by a qualified company of the Company's choosing; and

A candidate must complete a detailed questionnaire regarding his or her experience, background and independence.

Once the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee receives the nomination of a candidate and the candidate has complied with the minimum procedural requirements above, such candidacy will be evaluated and a recommendation with respect to such candidate will be delivered to the Board of Directors. In addition to these procedures for recommending a director nominee to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a stockholder may propose an individual for election to the Board of Directors in accordance with the Company's By-Laws, as described in the "Stockholder Proposals" section of this Proxy Statement.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors, executive officers and holders of more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock (collectively, "Reporting Persons") to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock of the Company. Such persons are required by regulations of the SEC to furnish the Company with copies of all such filings. The Company became subject to Section 16(a) reporting obligations on May 14, 2007, upon the SEC declaring the registration statement for our initial public offering effective. Based on its review of the copies of such filings received by it from May 14, 2007 to the present, the Company believes that no Reporting Person filed a late report during the most recent fiscal year, except for a report by Lars Boesgaard with respect to an option grant on November 8, 2007 for 37,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. In January 2008, the omission was discovered by the Company and a report was immediately filed.

EXECUTIVE AND DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

We provide what we believe is a competitive total compensation opportunity to our executive management team through a combination of base salary, target annual cash incentive bonuses, long-term equity incentive compensation and broad-based benefits programs. For each individual, the amount of pay that is actually realized will be primarily driven by the performance of the company and each individual. We believe this construct is a key underpinning of our pay for performance philosophy.

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis explains the following:

our compensation objectives

our executive compensation process

our company policies and practices with respect each compensation element

Included in each of the above will be the rationale for decisions made in 2007 regarding pay policies and practices to our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and the other three most highly-compensated executive officers as determined in accordance with applicable SEC rules, which are collectively referred to as the named executive officers.

Objectives of Our Executive Compensation Programs

Our compensation programs for our named executive officers are designed to achieve the following objectives:

attract and retain talented and experienced executives in the highly competitive and dynamic medical device industry;

motivate and reward executives whose knowledge, skills and performance are critical to our success;

align the interests of our executives and stockholders by motivating executives to increase stockholder value and rewarding executives when stockholder value increases;

provide competitive compensation opportunity in which a significant portion of actual realized pay is determined by company and individual results and the creation of stockholder value;

ensure fairness among the executive management team by recognizing the contributions each executive makes to our success;

foster a shared commitment among executives by coordinating their company and individual goals; and motivate our executives to manage our business to meet our short- and long-term objectives, and reward them for meeting these objectives.

Our Executive Compensation Process

The Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors is primarily responsible for determining the compensation for our executives. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Compensation Committee is independent as that term is defined in the applicable Nasdaq rules. In determining executive Compensation, our Compensation Committee annually reviews the performance of our executives with our Chief Executive Officer, and our Chief Executive Officer makes recommendations to our Compensation Committee with respect to the appropriate base salary, annual cash incentive bonus payments and performance measures and grants of long-term equity incentive awards for each of our executives, excluding himself. The Compensation Committee makes determinations on the above elements for the Chief Executive Officer. Historically, our Compensation Committee has then made recommendations to our Board of Directors for these executives, and our Board of Directors has approved our executive compensation.

Table of Contents

Prior to the completion of our initial public offering in May 2007, we were a privately-held company and most of our directors and Compensation Committee members were appointed by and affiliated with our largest stockholders. As a result, the total amount of compensation that we paid to our executives, the types of executive compensation programs we maintained and the amount of compensation paid to our executives under each program had been determined by our Compensation Committee and Board of Directors based on their understanding of executive compensation for comparable positions at similarly situated companies, experience in making these types of decisions and judgment regarding the appropriate amounts and types of executive compensation to pay. Additionally, the number of shares available to be granted under our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan had been limited by agreements entered into with our stockholders.

In connection with our initial public offering, our Compensation Committee engaged an independent compensation consultant, Watson Wyatt Worldwide, to assist us in reviewing our executive compensation programs and appropriately adjusting these programs. Going forward, we expect to continue to rely on our independent compensation consultant and other more formal market data regarding comparable companies' executive compensation programs and amounts in determining executive compensation.

Our Executive Compensation Programs

Our executive compensation primarily consists of base salary, annual cash incentive bonuses, long-term equity incentive compensation and broad-based benefits programs. Overall, we designed our executive compensation programs to achieve the objectives described above. In particular, consistent with the significant emphasis we place on performance-based incentive compensation, long-term equity incentive compensation in the form of stock options constitutes a significant portion of our total executive compensation. We also structured our annual cash incentive bonuses to be primarily tied to the achievement of predetermined performance goals.

Within the context of the overall objectives of our compensation programs, we determined the specific amounts of compensation, both target and realized, to each of our executives in 2007 based on a number of factors including:

our understanding of the amount of compensation paid by our peer companies to their executives with similar roles and responsibilities;

our executives' performance during 2007 in general and as measured against predetermined performance goals;

the roles and responsibilities of our executives;

the individual experience and skills of, and expected contributions from, our executives;

the amounts of compensation being paid to our other executives;

our executives' historical compensation at our company; and any contractual commitments we have made to our executives regarding compensation.

Each of the primary elements of our executive compensation is discussed in detail below, including a description of the particular element and how it fits into our overall executive compensation and a discussion of the amounts of compensation paid to our named executive officers in 2007 under each of these elements. In the descriptions below, we highlight particular compensation objectives that we have designed specific elements of our executive compensation program to address; however, it should be noted that we have designed our compensation programs to complement each other and collectively serve all of our executive compensation objectives described above.

Accordingly, whether or not specifically mentioned below, we believe that each element of our executive compensation program to a greater or lesser extent serves each of our objectives.

Base Salary

We pay our executives a base salary, which we review and determine annually. We believe that a competitive base salary is a necessary element of any compensation program that is designed to attract and retain talented and experienced executives. We also believe that attractive base salaries can motivate and reward executives for their overall performance. Although base salaries are established in part based on the individual experience, skills and expected contributions during the coming year of our executive and our executive's performance during the prior year, we do not view base salaries as primarily serving our objective of paying for performance.

In 2007, we increased the base salaries of our named executive officers as follows: Mr. DeSisto's base salary increased from $300,000 to $325,000 per year, Mr. Boess's base salary increased from $275,000 to $282,000 per year, Mr. Malavé's base salary increased from $240,000 to $275,000 per year, Ms. Gvazdauskas's base salary increased from $216,300 to $227,000 per year and Mr. Smith's base salary increased from $216,300 to $227,000 per year.

Mr. DeSisto's base salary was increased in order to remain competitive based on our review of market data and maintain a base salary structure among our executives that, in our judgment, appropriately reflects their respective roles and responsibilities. The base salaries of our other executives reflected 2.5% to 5.0% increases. Our executives' base salaries reflect the initial base salaries that we negotiated with each of our executives at the time of his or her initial employment or promotion and our subsequent adjustments to these amounts to reflect market increases, the growth and stage of development of our company, our executives' performance and increased experience, any changes in our executives' roles and responsibilities and other factors. The initial base salaries that we negotiated with our executives were based on our understanding of base salaries for comparable positions at similarly situated companies at the time, the individual experience and skills of, and expected contribution from, each executive, the roles and responsibilities of the executive, the base salaries of our existing executives and other factors.

Annual Cash Incentive Bonuses

Consistent with our emphasis on performance incentive compensation programs, our executives are eligible to receive annual cash incentive bonuses primarily based upon their performance as measured against predetermined goals established by us, including financial measures and the achievement of strategic objectives. The primary objective of our annual cash incentive bonuses is to motivate and reward our named executive officers for meeting our short-term objectives using a performance-based compensation program with objectively determinable goals. In addition, we reserve a portion of each executive's annual cash incentive bonus to be paid at our discretion based on the executive's overall performance. We maintain this discretionary portion of the annual cash incentive bonuses in order to motivate our executives' overall performance and their performance relating to matters that are not specifically addressed in the predetermined performance goals that we set. We believe that every important aspect of executive performance is not capable of being specifically quantified in a predetermined objective goal. For example, events outside of our control may occur after we have established the executives' performance goals for the year that require our executives to focus their attention on different or other strategic objectives.

We establish the target amount of our annual cash incentive bonuses at a level that represents a meaningful portion of our executives' currently paid out cash compensation, and set additional threshold and maximum performance levels above and below these target levels. In establishing these levels, in addition to considering the incentives that we want to provide to our executives, we also consider target bonus levels for comparable positions at our peer competitor companies, our historical practices and any contractual commitments that we have relating to executive bonuses.

In 2007, we established a target annual cash incentive bonus for each of our named executive officers of between 20% and 25% of his or her base salary, depending on the executive's role. Of this amount, 10% to 20% of the bonus was reserved to be paid at our discretion based on the executive's overall performance. The amount of the discretionary portion of the annual cash incentive bonus paid to each of our executives was based on our assessment of their overall performance during the year. The remainder of the annual cash

incentive bonus for each of our executives was based on their achievement of a number of predetermined performance goals.

The goals for 2007 related to obtaining and supporting a predetermined number of customers, meeting a specific financial goal of budgeted earnings before income tax, depreciation and amortization for Messrs. DeSisto and Boess and budgeted spending limits for each other named executive officer, and, for each executive, achieving other specific individualized strategic objectives. A specified percentage of the annual cash incentive bonus is payable based on the achievement of each of the different performance goals, and generally, for each goal, the executive has the ability to earn between 50% and 125% of the target bonus amount.

Overall, the targets for the performance measures were set at levels that we believed to be achievable with strong performance by our executives. Although we cannot always predict the different events that will impact our business during an upcoming year, we set our performance goals for the target amount of annual incentive cash bonuses at levels that we believe will be achieved by our executives a majority of the time. Our maximum and threshold levels for these performance goals are determined in relation to our target levels, are intended to provide for correspondingly greater or lesser incentives in the event that performance is within a specified range above or below the target level, and are correspondingly easier or harder to achieve. We set the performance goals for the maximum amount at a level that we believe will be achieved in some years, but will not be achieved a majority of the time.

During 2008, our Compensation Committee adjusted the target annual incentive bonuses for certain of our executive officers, which adjustments will apply to bonuses to be paid for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008. Ms. Gvazdauskas' target bonus, which had been 20% for 2007, was increased to 100% for 2008. The discretionary portion was eliminated and the predetermined performance goals were altered as follows: 80% of the bonus will be based on Ms. Gvazdauskas' attainment of a specific revenue goal and 20% will be based on the achievement of budgeted spending limits. These changes were made to reflect the importance to our growing business of Ms. Gvazdauskas' sales and marketing efforts in fiscal 2008 and to provide her with appropriate incentives. Other named executive officers' target bonuses were also increased as follows based on comparative data provided to us by Watson Wyatt: Mr. DeSisto's target bonus increased from 25% to 60%, Mr. Boess' target bonus increased from 25% to 45%, Mr. Malavé's target bonus increased from 25% to 45%, and Mr. Smith's target bonus increased from 25% to 30%.

Long-Term Equity Incentive Compensation

We grant long-term equity incentive awards in the form of stock options to executives as part of our total compensation package. Consistent with our emphasis on performance-based incentive compensation, these awards represent a significant portion of total executive compensation. We use long-term equity incentive awards in order to align the interests of our executives and our stockholders by providing our executives with strong incentives to increase stockholder value and a significant reward for doing so. Based on the early stage of our company's development and the incentives we are trying to provide to our executives, we have chosen to use stock options, which derive value exclusively from increases in stockholder value, as opposed to restricted stock or other forms of equity awards. Our decisions regarding the amount and type of long-term equity incentive compensation and relative weighting of these awards among total executive compensation have also been based on our understanding of market practices of similarly situated companies and our negotiations with our executives in connection with their initial employment or promotion by our company.

Stock option awards provide our executive officers with the right to purchase shares of our common stock at a fixed exercise price typically for a period of up to ten years, subject to continued employment with our company. Stock options are earned on the basis of continued service to us and have generally vested over four years, beginning with one-fourth vesting one year after the date of grant, then pro-rata vesting monthly thereafter. Prior to our initial public offering, all stock option awards were made pursuant to our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Following the closing of our initial public offering in May 2007, option awards are made pursuant to our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. See Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control for a discussion of the change-in-control provisions related to stock options.

The exercise price of each stock option granted under our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan or to be granted under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan is based on the fair market value of our common stock on the grant date. Historically, the fair market value of our common stock for purposes of determining the exercise price of stock options has been determined by our board of directors based on its analysis of a number of factors including, among others, the total company valuation implied by the most recent venture capital round of financing, the market value of similarly situated public companies, our anticipated future risks and opportunities, the rights and preferences of our preferred stock existing at the time and the discounts customarily applicable to common stock of privately-held companies. More recently, our board of directors has based its determination on independent appraisals by an outside valuation consultant. Following our initial public offering, all stock options continue to be granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant, but fair market value is defined as the closing market price of a share of our common stock on the date of grant. We do not have any program, plan or practice of setting the exercise price based on a date or price other than the fair market value of our common stock on the grant date.

We have granted all of our stock options to executives as incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, subject to the volume limitations contained in the Internal Revenue Code. Generally, for stock options that do not qualify as incentive stock options, we are entitled to a tax deduction in the year in which the stock options are exercised equal to the spread between the exercise price and the fair market value of the stock for which the stock option was exercised. The holders of the stock options are generally taxed on this same amount in the year of exercise. For stock options that qualify as incentive stock options, we do not receive a tax deduction and the holder of the stock option may receive more favorable tax treatment than he or she would for a non-qualified stock option. Historically, we have granted primarily incentive stock options in order to provide these potential tax benefits to our executives, particularly given the limited expected benefits to our company of the tax deductions as a result of our historical net losses.

We have made grants to our named executive officers on a periodic, but not necessarily annual, basis. In 2007, we considered a number of factors in determining what, if any, stock options to grant to our executives, including:

the number of shares subject to, and exercise price of, outstanding options, both vested and unvested, held by our executives;

the vesting schedule of the unvested stock options held by our executives; and the amount and percentage of our total equity on a diluted basis held by our executives.

In 2007, we granted Mr. Malavé a stock option under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan to purchase 91,369 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $11.64 per share. Other than this grant, we determined not to make any new stock option grants to our executives in 2007.

Broad-Based Benefits Programs

All full-time employees, including our named executive officers, may participate in our health and welfare benefit programs, including medical, dental and vision care coverage, disability insurance and life insurance, employee stock purchase plan and our 401(k) plan.

Severance and Change in Control Programs

Certain of our executive officers have entered into employment agreements that require us to make payments to them if they are terminated by us without cause or if there is a change in control. We agreed to provide such payments to these executives in these circumstances based on our negotiations with each of our executives at the time they joined our company and in order to provide a total compensation package that we believed to be competitive. For a detailed description of these potential payments, see the section below entitled Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control.

Discussion of Summary Compensation and Grants of Plan-Based Awards Tables

Our executive compensation policies and practices, pursuant to which the compensation set forth in the Summary Compensation Table and the Grants of Plan Based Awards Table was paid or awarded, are described above under Compensation Discussion and Analysis. A summary of certain material terms of our compensation plans and arrangements is set forth below.

Employment Agreements

As of December 31, 2007, we had employment agreements with Duane DeSisto, our President and Chief Executive Officer; Carsten Boess, our Chief Financial Officer. As of December 31, 2007, we did not have currently effective employment agreements with Luis Malavé, our Chief Operating Officer (formerly our Senior Vice President of Research, Development and Engineering); Shawna Gvazdauskas, our Vice President of Sales; or Jeff Smith, our Vice President of Marketing and Business Development. We did enter into employment agreements with Mr. Malavé, Ms. Gvazdauskas and Mr. Smith when we initially hired them, but these agreements have since expired. The following is a description of the material terms of our employment agreements with Messrs. DeSisto and Boess that were in effect as of December 31, 2007.

Mr. DeSisto. We entered into an employment agreement with Mr. DeSisto effective as of March 1, 2005, which provides for a two-year initial term of employment that is automatically extended for additional one-year periods unless either party notifies the other of non-extension at least 45 days prior to the end of a term. The current term of the agreement is schedule to expire on February 29, 2008. Under the agreement, we agreed to pay Mr. DeSisto an annual base salary determined by our board of directors that may not be less than $250,000. Additionally, in the event that Mr. DeSisto's employment agreement is terminated by us without cause, as defined in the employment agreement, and Mr. DeSisto signs a release acceptable to us, we will be obligated to continue to pay Mr. DeSisto his base salary for a period of twelve months following termination. Our obligation to make these severance payments is subject to Mr. DeSisto's continued compliance with his confidentiality, non-compete and non-solicitation obligations under his non-competition and non-solicitation agreement and employee nondisclosure and developments agreement with us.

Mr. Boess. We entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Boess effective as of June 1, 2006, which provides for a two-year term of employment from June 1, 2006. Under the agreement, Mr. Boess's initial base salary was established at $275,000, subject to annual review by our Chief Executive Officer. We also agreed to grant Mr. Boess a stock option to purchase 209,353 shares of our common stock at an exercise price equal to fair market value on the date of grant. In the event that Mr. Boess's employment agreement is terminated by us without cause, as defined in the employment agreement, and Mr. Boess signs a release acceptable to us, we will be obligated to continue to pay Mr. Boess his base salary for a period of six months following termination. Our obligation to make these severance payments is also subject to Mr. Boess's continued compliance with his confidentiality, non-compete and non-solicitation obligations under his non-competition and non-solicitation agreement and employee non-disclosure and developments agreement with us.

In addition to these employment agreements, each of our named executive officers has entered into a non-competition and non-solicitation agreement and an employee non-disclosure and developments agreement with us, which provide for protection of our confidential information, assignment to us of intellectual property developed by our executives and non-compete and non-solicitation obligations that are effective while the executive is employed by us and for a period of 12 months thereafter.

Annual Cash Incentive Bonuses

In 2007, we established target annual cash incentive bonuses for each of our named executive officers as a percentage of that executive's base salary, as follows: Mr. DeSisto 25%; Mr. Boess 25%; Mr. Malavé 25%; Ms. Gvazdauskas 20%; and Mr. Smith 20%. The following percentages of these total target annual cash incentive bonuses were reserved to be paid at our discretion based on the executive's overall performance: Mr. DeSisto 20%; Mr. Boess 10%; Mr. Malavé 10%; Ms. Gvazdauskas 20%; and Mr. Smith 20%. The discretionary bonus amounts paid are reported as Bonus in the Summary Compensation Table. The remainder of the bonuses were paid based on the executives' achievement of a number of predetermined performance goals, as described above under Our Executive Compensation Programs Annual Cash Incentive Bonuses. Generally, for each goal, the executive had the ability to earn between 50% and 125% of the target bonus amount based on the level of achievement of that goal. The bonuses paid upon the achievement of these predetermined performance goals are reported as Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation in the Summary Compensation Table.

Additionally, in the 2007 Grants of Plan-Based Awards table, the Estimated Possible Payouts under Non-Equity Incentive Plan Awards column for each of the executives relates to the portion of our annual cash incentive bonuses that was payable upon the achievement of these predetermined performance goals. The threshold payouts represent the payout that would have been received if each performance goal was met at the minimum level, the target represents the payout that would have been received if each performance goal was met at the target level and the maximum represents the payout that would have been received if each performance goal was met at the maximum level.

2007 Stock Option Grants

In 2007, we granted Mr. Malavé a stock option under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan to purchase 91,369 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $11.64 per share. This stock option has a term of ten years and may be exercised at any time and from time to time prior to its expiration for all or a portion of such option shares. This stock option vests over four years with 25% of the total award vesting after one year and the remainder vesting in equal monthly installments each month thereafter for 36 months. Vesting of this stock option is also subject to acceleration in connection with a change-in-control as described in Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control.

2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan

Our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan was initially adopted by our board of directors and approved by our stockholders in October 2000. Following our initial public offering in May 2007, no additional grants are being made under our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan.

As a matter of practice, most stock options issued under our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan have been issued as incentive stock options, subject to the volume limitations contained in the Internal Revenue Code, and subject to a four-year vesting period, with 25% of the total award vesting after one year and the remainder vesting in equal monthly installments each month thereafter for 36 months. Additionally, most of the stock options granted under our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, including all stock options issued prior to December 20, 2006, allow for the exercise of unvested options at any time after the options were issued, provided that the vesting terms will continue to apply to the shares acquired upon such an exercise and any unvested shares will be subject to repurchase by us at the exercise price paid to acquire the shares. After termination of an optionee, he or she may exercise his or her vested options for the period of time stated in the stock option agreement issued under our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Generally, if termination is due to death or disability, the vested option will remain exercisable for 180 days; if termination is for cause, the option may no longer be exercised; and, in all other cases, the vested options will remain exercisable for three months. In addition, each stock option we have granted under our 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan generally expires ten years after the issuance of such option, regardless of whether the optionee has been terminated.

2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan

Background. Our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan was adopted by our board of directors and approved by our stockholders in April 2007.

Administration. Our Compensation Committee of our board of directors is responsible for administering our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, the plan administrator has the power to determine the terms of the awards, including the officers, employees, non-employee directors and key persons (including consultants and prospective employees) who will receive awards, the exercise price, the number of shares subject to each award, the vesting schedule and exercisability of awards and the form of consideration payable upon exercise of an option.

Eligibility. All of our officers, employees, non-employee directors and key persons (including consultants and prospective employees) are eligible to be granted awards under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan.

Number of Shares Available for Issuance. The maximum number of shares of our common stock that are authorized for issuance under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan currently is 535,000 shares, which amount will be increased on January 1, 2008, and on each January 1 thereafter through January 1, 2012, by a number of shares equal to 3% of the number of shares of our common stock outstanding as of the immediately preceding December 31, up to the maximum increase of 725,000 additional shares per year. In addition, each share of deferred stock, restricted stock, unrestricted stock or performance shares awarded under the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan will count as 1.5 shares against the total pool of shares available for issuance under the plan. Shares issued under the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan may be authorized but unissued shares or shares reacquired by us. Any shares subject to awards that are forfeited, canceled, held back upon exercise of an option or settlement of an award to cover the exercise price or tax withholding, reacquired by us prior to vesting, satisfied without the issuance of shares or otherwise terminated (other than by exercise) shall be added back to the shares available for issuance under the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Upon the occurrence of a merger, consolidation, recapitalization, reclassification, stock split, stock dividend, combination of shares or the like, the plan administrator will make an appropriate or proportionate adjustment in the shares reserved for issuance under, and the number of shares or exercise price applicable to any award outstanding under, the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan.

Types of Awards. The plan administrator may grant the following types of awards under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan: stock options; stock appreciation rights; deferred stock awards; restricted stock; unrestricted stock; cash based awards; performance share awards; or dividend equivalent rights. Stock options awarded under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan may be nonqualified stock options or incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. With the exception of incentive stock options, the plan administrator may grant, from time to time, any of the types of awards under our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan to our officers, employees, non-employee directors and key persons (including consultants and prospective employees). Incentive stock options may only be granted to our employees.

Stock Options. A stock option is the right to acquire shares of our common stock at a fixed price for a fixed period of time and generally is subject to a vesting requirement. We typically grant options subject to a four-year vesting period, with 25% of the total award vesting after one year and the remainder vesting in equal quarterly installments each quarter thereafter for 36 months. In the event we are acquired or are otherwise subject to a change in control, all of the outstanding options granted under our 2007 Stock Option and

Incentive Plan will become fully vested. A stock option will be in the form of a nonqualified stock option or an incentive stock option. The exercise price is set by the plan administrator but cannot be less than 100% of the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant, or, in the case of incentive stock options granted to an employee who owns 10% or more of total combined voting power of our common stock, or a 10% owner, the exercise price cannot be less than 110% of the fair market value of our common stock on the date grant. The term of a stock option may not exceed ten years or five years in the case of incentive stock options granted to a 10% owner. After an optionee's employment with us is terminated, he or she may exercise his or her vested options for the period of time stated in the stock option agreement. Generally, if termination is due to death or disability, the vested option will remain exercisable for 180 days; if termination is for cause, the option may no longer be exercised; and, in all other cases, the vested options will remain exercisable for three months. However, an option may not be exercised later than its expiration date.

Amendment and Discontinuance; Term. Our board of directors may at any time amend or discontinue our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, and the plan administrator may at any time amend or cancel any outstanding award for the purpose of satisfying changes in law or for any other lawful purpose, but no such action will adversely affect rights under any outstanding awards without the holder's consent. To the extent required by applicable laws or rules, plan amendments may be subject to stockholder approval. Unless terminated earlier, our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan will expire on the tenth anniversary of its effective date.

2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan

Our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan was adopted by our board of directors and approved by our stockholders in April 2007 and became effective upon the closing of our initial public offering in May 2007. Our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan authorizes the issuance of up to a total of 380,000 shares of our common stock to participating employees.

All of our employees who have been employed by us for at least six months and whose customary employment is for more than 20 hours a week are eligible to participate in our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Any employee who owns 5% or more of the voting power or value of our stock is not eligible to purchase shares under our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

We will make one or more offerings each year to our employees to purchase stock under our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The first offering began on the date of the closing of our initial public offering and will end on December 31, 2007. Subsequent offerings will usually begin on each January 1 and July 1 and will continue for six-month periods, referred to as offering periods. Each employee eligible to participate on the date of the closing of our initial public offering was automatically deemed to be a participant in the initial offering period.

Each employee who is a participant in our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan may purchase shares by authorizing payroll deductions of up to 10% of his or her cash compensation during an offering period. Unless the participating employee has previously withdrawn from the offering, his or her accumulated payroll deductions will be used to purchase common stock on the last business day of the offering period at a price equal to 85% of the fair market value of the common stock on the last day of the offering period. Under applicable tax rules, an employee may purchase no more than $25,000 worth of common stock, valued at the start of the purchase period, under our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan in any calendar year.

The accumulated payroll deductions of any employee who is not a participant on the last day of an offering period will be refunded. An employee's rights under our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan terminate upon voluntary withdrawal from the plan or when the employee ceases employment for any reason.

Our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan may be terminated or amended by our board of directors at any time. An amendment that increases the number of shares of our common stock that is authorized under our 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan and certain other amendments require the approval of our stockholders.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control

In the event that any of Mr. DeSisto's or Mr. Boess's employment agreement is terminated by us without cause and he signs a release acceptable to us, he will be entitled to continue to be paid his base salary for a period of six months, in the case of Mr. Boess, or twelve months, in the case of Mr. DeSisto, as applicable, following termination.

Additionally, these named executive officers will be entitled to payment for any accrued unused vacation time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, our obligation to make these severance payments to any of these named executive officers is subject to that executive's continued compliance with his confidentiality, non-compete and non-solicitation obligations under his non-competition and non-solicitation agreement and employee non-disclosure and developments agreement with us. We agreed to provide severance payments to these executives in these circumstances based on our negotiations with each of our executives at the time they joined our company and in order to provide a total compensation package that we believed to be competitive.

Cause means any of the following: the failure or refusal of the named executive officer to render services to us in accordance with his obligations under the employment agreement or a determination by us that the named executive officer has failed to perform the duties of his employment; disloyalty, gross negligence, dishonesty, breach of fiduciary duty or breach of the terms of the employment agreement or the other agreements executed in connection therewith; the commission by the named executive officer of an act of fraud, embezzlement or disregard of our rules or policies or the commission by the named executive officer of any other action which injures us; acts which, in the judgment of our board of directors, would tend to generate adverse publicity toward us; the commission, or plea of nolo contendere, by the named executive officer of a felony; the commission of an act which constitutes unfair competition with us or which induces any of our customers to breach a contract with us; or a breach by the named executive officer of the terms of the non-competition and non-solicitation agreement or the employee non-disclosure and developments agreement between us and the named executive officer.

If Mr. DeSisto or Mr. Boess had been terminated without cause on December 31, 2007, the approximate value of the severance benefits, assuming three weeks of accrued unused vacation time, under the employment agreement for each such named executive officer would have been as follows: Mr. DeSisto $343,750 and Mr. Boess $156,962. Also, any remaining unvested options granted to such named executive officer under the 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan would have ceased vesting on that date.

If Mr. DeSisto or Mr. Boess had been terminated for cause or if such named executive officer had terminated his employment for any reason, the approximate value of the severance benefits, assuming three weeks of accrued unused vacation time, under the employment agreement for each such named executive officer would have been as follows: Mr. DeSisto $18,750 and Mr. Boess $16,269. Also, any remaining unvested options granted to such named executive officer under the 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan would have ceased vesting on that date.

Upon a change-in-control, a named executive officer will be entitled to accelerated vesting for 50% of any remaining unvested options granted under the 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan and 100% of any unvested options granted under the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Further, in the event that, within twelve months following a change-in-control, a named executive officer's employment is terminated without cause, he or she experiences a material negative change in his or her compensation or responsibilities or he or she is required to be based at a location more than 50 miles from his or her current work location, any remaining unvested options granted under the 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan will become fully vested. Change-in-control means any of the following: a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets; or a merger or consolidation after which our voting securities outstanding immediately before the transaction cease to represent at least a majority of the combined voting power of the successor entity's outstanding voting securities immediately after the transaction. We agreed to provide payments to these executives in these circumstances in order to provide a total compensation package that we believed to be competitive. Additionally, the primary purpose of our equity-based incentive awards is to align the interests of our executives and our stockholders and provide our executives with strong incentives to increase stockholder value over time. As change-in-control transactions typically represent events where our stockholders are realizing the value of their equity interests in our company, we believe it is appropriate for our executives to share in this realization of stockholder value, particularly where their employment is terminated in connection with the change-in-control transaction. We believe that this acceleration of vesting will also help to better align the interests of our executives with our stockholders in pursuing and engaging in these transactions.

If a change-in-control had occurred on December 31, 2007, the value of 50% of any remaining unvested options granted under the 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan for each named executive officer, calculated based on the spread between the exercise price of the unvested options and $23.48, which was the closing price for our common stock on The Nasdaq Global Market on December 31, 2007, would have been approximately as follows: Mr. DeSisto $161,155, Mr. Boess $526,170, Mr. Malavé $558,601, Ms. Gvazdauskas $24,835 and Mr. Smith $21,586.

If a change-in-control had occurred on December 31, 2007 and on that date each named executive officer had been terminated without cause, experienced a material negative change in his or her compensation or responsibilities or was required to be based at a location more than 50 miles from his or her current work location, the value of any remaining unvested options granted under the 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan for each named executive officer, calculated based on the spread between the exercise price of the unvested options and $23.48, which was the closing price for our common stock on The Nasdaq Global Market on December 31, 2007, would have been approximately as follows: Mr. DeSisto $322,310, Mr. Boess $1,052,340, Mr. Malavé $1,117,202, Ms. Gvazdauskas $49,670 and Mr. Smith $43,172.

Director Compensation

During 2007, our director compensation policy was to pay all of our non-employee directors the following compensation:

an annual retainer of $25,000;

a $1,000 fee for each meeting attended (except that the fee for the Audit Committee chairman will be $1,750 for each Audit Committee meeting attended);

an additional annual retainer of $10,000 to the Audit Committee chairman;

an additional annual retainer of $6,000 to each of the Compensation Committee chairman, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee chairman and lead director;

upon initial election to our board of directors, a grant of an option to purchase 9,520 shares of our common stock; and an annual grant of an option to purchase 3,810 shares of our common stock, such grant to be made effective on the third business day following our annual stockholders meeting.

All options granted to non-employee directors will have an exercise price equal to the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant and will vest 50% on the first anniversary of the grant date and 25% on each of the second and third such anniversaries, subject to continued service as a director.

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to our director compensation during the year ended December 31, 2007.

The assumptions we used for calculating the grant date fair values are set forth in notes 2 and 10 to our consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. As of December 31, 2007, our non-employee directors held options that had been granted by us as director compensation to purchase the following number of shares of our common stock: Mr. Eichhorn 10,711 shares; Mr. Liamos 19,035 shares; and Mr. Sobieski 19,035 shares.

In addition to the compensation described above, we also reimburse all non-employee directors for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings of our board of directors or any committees thereof.

PROPOSAL 2

APPROVAL OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE 2007 STOCK OPTION AND INCENTIVE PLAN

The Company's 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan was adopted by the Board of Directors and approved by our stockholders in April 2007. On March 27, 2008, our Board of Directors voted to amend the Company's 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, or the 2007 Plan, and is recommending the amendment to the 2007 Plan to our stockholders for approval.

As of March 24, 2008, there are 356,143 shares of common stock available under the Company's 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. The amendment to the 2007 Plan increases the reserved shares of our common stock under the plan by 600,000 shares. The addition of these shares of common stock allows the Compensation Committee to continue to use stock-based awards to attract and retain employees and directors, further align employee and stockholder interests, continue to link employee compensation with Company performance and maintain a culture of ownership.

Based solely on the closing price of our common stock as reported by the Nasdaq Global Market on March 27, 2008, the maximum aggregate market value of the additional 600,000 new shares of common stock that could be issued under the 2007 Plan is $8,982,000. The shares we issue under the 2007 Plan will be authorized but unissued shares.

Summary of the 2007 Plan

The following description of certain features of the 2007 Plan is intended to be a summary only. The summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the 2007 Plan. A copy of the 2007 Plan, including the amendments thereto, may be obtained on the website of the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.sec.gov or from Insulet upon request.

Administration

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for administering the 2007 Plan. The Compensation Committee has the power, subject to the provisions of the 2007 Plan, to determine the nature and extent of the awards to be made to each participant; to determine the time when awards will be made to participants; to establish the performance goals and determine the period of time within which performance is measured with respect to performance units; to establish the various targets and bonus amounts which may be earned by certain employees; to specify the relationship between the performance goals and the targets and amounts that may be earned by certain employees; to determine the period of time during which shares of restricted common stock or units are subject to restrictions; to determine the conditions for the payment of awards; and to prescribe the forms of agreements and documents evidencing the awards. The Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee may also delegate to one or more of our officers the power to designate which of our non-officer employees shall receive stock awards, and the number of shares of common stock that will be subject to each award, subject to a maximum aggregate number of shares specified by the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee at the time the delegation to the officers is made. However, the Board of Directors may not delegate to the Compensation Committee or otherwise, the power to grant stock awards to independent directors.

Eligibility

All of our officers, employees, non-employee directors and key persons (including consultants and prospective employees) are eligible to be granted awards under the 2007 Plan. Approximately 310 individuals are currently eligible to participate in the 2007 Plan.

Number of Shares Available for Issuance

The maximum number of shares of our common stock that are authorized for issuance under the 2007 Plan, as amended, is 1,860,000 shares, which amount includes 725,000 shares of common stock added on January 1, 2008 pursuant to the 2007 Plan. This amount will be increased on January 1, 2009, and on each

Table of Contents

January 1 thereafter through January 1, 2012, by a number of shares equal to 3% of the number of shares of our common stock outstanding as of the immediately preceding December 31, up to the maximum increase of 725,000 additional shares per year. In addition, each share of deferred stock, restricted stock, unrestricted stock or performance shares awarded under the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan will count as 1.5 shares against the total pool of shares available for issuance under the plan. Shares issued under the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan may be authorized but unissued shares or shares reacquired by us. Any shares subject to awards that are forfeited, canceled, held back upon exercise of an option or settlement of an award to cover the exercise price or tax withholding, reacquired by us prior to vesting, satisfied without the issuance of shares or otherwise terminated (other than by exercise) shall be added back to the shares available for issuance under the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Upon the occurrence of a merger, consolidation, recapitalization, reclassification, stock split, stock dividend, combination of shares or the like, the plan administrator will make an appropriate or proportionate adjustment in the shares reserved for issuance under, and the number of shares or exercise price applicable to any award outstanding under, the 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan.

Types of Awards

Stock Options. Options granted under the 2007 Plan may be either incentive stock options (within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code) or non-qualified stock options. Incentive options may be granted only to employees of the Company or any domestic subsidiary. Options granted under the 2007 Plan will be non-qualified options if they (i) fail to qualify as incentive options, (ii) are granted to a person not eligible to receive incentive options under the Internal Revenue Code, or (iii) are granted pursuant to an award agreement that otherwise so provides. Non-qualified options may be granted to any persons eligible to receive incentive stock options and to non-management directors and other key persons.

Other Option Terms. The Compensation Committee has authority to determine the terms of options granted under the 2007 Plan. Options shall be granted with an exercise price that is not less than the fair market value of the shares of common stock on the date of the option grant.

The term of each option will be fixed by the Compensation Committee and may not exceed ten years from the date of grant. The Compensation Committee will determine at what time or times each option may be exercised and, subject to the provisions of the 2007 Plan, the period of time, if any, after retirement, death, disability or termination of employment during which options may be exercised. Options may be made exercisable in installments, and the exercisability of options may be accelerated under certain circumstances by the Compensation Committee.

In general, unless otherwise permitted by the Compensation Committee, no option granted under the 2007 Plan is transferable by the optionee other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and options may be exercised during the optionee's lifetime only by the optionee, or by the optionee's legal representative or guardian in the case of the optionee's incapacity.

Options granted under the 2007 Plan may be exercised for cash, check or by transfer to the Company (either actually or by attestation) of shares of the Company's common stock that are not then subject to restrictions under any the Company's stock plans, and that have been held by the optionee for at least six months or were purchased on the open market, and that have a fair market value equivalent to the option exercise price of the shares being purchased. Subject to applicable law, options granted under the 2007 Plan also may be exercised by compliance with certain provisions pursuant to which a securities broker delivers the purchase price for the shares to the Company.

To qualify as incentive options, options must meet additional federal tax requirements, including a $100,000 limit on the value of shares subject to incentive options which first become exercisable in any one calendar year, and a shorter term and higher minimum exercise price in the case of certain large shareholders.

Stock Appreciation Rights. The Compensation Committee may award a stock appreciation right either as a freestanding award or in tandem with a stock option. Upon exercise of the stock appreciation right, the holder will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value on the date of exercise of one share of common stock over the price per share specified in such right, multiplied by the number of shares of common stock with respect to which the stock appreciation right is exercised. This amount shall be paid in shares of common stock. The exercise price per share of stock appreciation rights may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the shares of common stock on the date of grant.

Restricted Stock Awards. The Compensation Committee may grant shares of common stock, at a purchase price (which may be zero) determined by the Compensation Committee, subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Compensation Committee may determine. These conditions and restrictions may include the achievement of pre-established performance goals and/or continued employment with the Company through a specified vesting period. The vesting period shall be determined by the Compensation Committee. However, in the event these awards have a performance-based goal, the restriction period will be at least one year, and in the event these awards have a time-based restriction, the restriction period will be at least three years. If the applicable performance goals and other restrictions are not attained, the participant will forfeit his or her award of restricted stock.

Deferred Stock Awards. The Compensation Committee also may award phantom stock units as deferred stock awards to participants. The deferred stock awards are ultimately payable in the form of shares of common stock and may be subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Compensation Committee may determine. These conditions and restrictions may include the achievement of certain performance goals and/or continued employment with the Company through a specified vesting period. However, in the event these awards have a performance-based goal, the restriction period will be at least one year, and in the event these awards have a time-based restriction, the restriction period will be at least three years. During the deferral period, subject to terms and conditions imposed by the Compensation Committee, the deferred stock awards may be credited with dividend equivalent rights (discussed below). Deferred stock awards will comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

Unrestricted Stock Awards. The Compensation Committee may also grant shares (at no cost or for a purchase price determined by the Compensation Committee) of common stock that are free from any restrictions under the 2007 Plan. Unrestricted stock may be granted to any participant in recognition of past services or other valid consideration, and may be issued in lieu of cash compensation due to such participant.

Cash-based Awards. Each cash-based award shall specify a cash-denominated payment amount, formula or payment ranges as determined by the Compensation Committee. Payment, if any, with respect to a cash-based award may be made in cash or in common shares, as the Compensation Committee determines.

Performance Awards. Holders of performance shares will be entitled to receive payment in shares of our common stock if the performance goals established by the Compensation Committee are achieved. The Compensation Committee may also award incentive bonuses in the form of cash.

Dividend Equivalent Rights. The Compensation Committee may grant dividend equivalent rights that entitle the recipient to receive credits for dividends that would be paid if the recipient had held specified shares of common stock. Dividend equivalent rights may be granted as a component of another award or as a freestanding award. Dividend equivalent rights credited under the 2007 Plan may be paid currently or be deemed to be reinvested in additional shares of common stock, that may thereafter accrue additional dividend equivalent rights at fair market value at the time of deemed reinvestment or on the terms then governing the reinvestment of dividends under our dividend reinvestment plan, if any. Dividend equivalent rights may be settled in cash, shares of common stock or a combination thereof, as specified in the award.

Tax Withholding

Participants under the 2007 Plan are responsible for the payment of any federal, state or local taxes, including those that we are required by law to withhold upon any option exercise or vesting of other awards. Subject to approval by the Compensation Committee, participants may elect to have the minimum tax withholding obligations satisfied either by authorizing the Company to withhold shares of common stock to be issued pursuant to an option exercise or other award, or by transferring to the Company shares of common stock having a value up to the amount of such taxes.

Table of ContentsAmendment and Discontinuance; Term

The Board of Directors may at any time amend or discontinue the 2007 Plan, and the plan administrator may at any time amend or cancel any outstanding award for the purpose of satisfying changes in law or for any other lawful purpose, but no such action will adversely affect rights under any outstanding awards without the holder's consent. To the extent required by applicable laws or rules, plan amendments may be subject to stockholder approval. Unless terminated earlier, the 2007 Plan will expire on the tenth anniversary of its effective date.

New 2007 Plan Benefits

Because the grant of awards under the 2007 Plan is within the discretion of the Board of Directors and the Compensation Committee, we cannot determine the dollar value or number of shares of common stock that will in the future be received by or allocated to any participant in the 2007 Plan. Accordingly, in lieu of providing information regarding benefits that will be received under the 2007 Plan, the following table provides information concerning the benefits that were received by the following persons and groups under the 2007 Plan during the year ended December 31, 2007: each named executive officer; all current executive officers, as a group; all current directors who are not executive officers, as a group; and all employees who are not executive officers, as a group.

Tax Aspects Under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code

The following is a summary of the principal United States federal income tax consequences of transactions under the 2007 Plan. It does not describe all federal tax consequences under the 2007 Plan, nor does it describe state, local or foreign tax consequences.

Incentive Options. No taxable income is generally realized by the optionee upon the grant or exercise of an incentive option. If shares of common stock issued to an optionee pursuant to the exercise of an incentive option are sold or transferred after two years from the date of grant and after one year from the date of exercise, then (i) upon sale of such shares, any amount realized in excess of the option price (the amount paid for the shares) will be taxed to the optionee as a long-term capital gain, and any loss sustained will be a long-term capital loss, and (ii) there will be no deduction for the Company for federal income tax purposes. However, the exercise of an incentive option will give rise to an item of tax preference that may result in alternative minimum tax liability for the optionee. An optionee will not have any FICA (e.g., Social Security and Medicare) taxes upon exercise of an incentive option.

If shares of common stock acquired upon the exercise of an incentive option are disposed of prior to the expiration of the two-year and one-year holding periods described above (a disqualifying disposition), generally (i) the optionee will realize ordinary income in the year of disposition in an amount equal to the excess (if any) of the fair market value of the shares of common stock at exercise (or, if less, the amount realized on a sale of such shares of common stock) over the option price thereof, and (ii) the Company will be entitled to deduct such amount. Special rules will apply where all or a portion of the exercise price of the incentive option is paid by tendering shares of common stock.

If an incentive option is exercised at a time when it no longer qualifies for the tax treatment described above, the option is treated as a non-qualified option. Generally, an incentive option will not be eligible for the tax treatment described above if it is exercised more than three months following termination of employment (or one year in the case of termination of employment by reason of disability). In the case of termination of employment by reason of death, the three-month rule does not apply.

Non-Qualified Options. No income is realized by the optionee at the time a non-qualified option is granted. Generally (i) at exercise, ordinary income is realized by the optionee in an amount equal to the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the shares of common stock on the date of exercise, and the Company receives a tax deduction for the same amount, and (ii) at disposition, appreciation or depreciation after the date of exercise is treated as either short-term or long-term capital gain or loss depending on how long the shares of common stock have been held. Special rules will apply where all or a portion of the exercise price of the non-qualified option is paid by tendering shares of common stock. Upon exercise, the optionee will also be subject to FICA taxes on the excess of the fair market value over the exercise price of the option.

Restricted Stock. An award of restricted stock will not result in taxable income to the participant at the time of grant. Upon the lapse of the restrictions, the participant will recognize ordinary income in the amount of the fair market value of the shares of common stock at the time that the restriction lapses. The Company will be entitled to a deduction in the year in which the participant recognizes ordinary income with respect to the restricted stock in an amount equal to such income.

Other Awards. The current federal income tax consequences of other awards authorized under the 2007 Plan generally follow certain basic patterns: stock appreciation rights and deferred stock awards are taxed and deductible in substantially the same manner as non-qualified stock options, except to the extent Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code applies, in which case recipients would be taxed at the time these items cease to be subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture. Stock-based performance awards and dividend equivalent rights are generally subject to tax at the time of payment. In each of the foregoing cases, the Company will generally have a corresponding deduction at the time the participant recognizes income.

Parachute Payments. The vesting of any portion of any option or other award that is accelerated due to the occurrence of a change of control may cause a portion of the payments with respect to such accelerated awards to be treated as parachute payments as defined in the Internal Revenue Code. Any such parachute payments may be non-deductible to the Company, in whole or in part, and may subject the recipient to a non-deductible 20% federal excise tax on all or a portion of such payment (in addition to other taxes ordinarily payable).

Limitation on the Company's Deductions. As a result of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Company's deduction for certain awards under the 2007 Plan may be limited to the extent that a covered employee (generally the executives listed in the summary compensation table of the proxy statement) receives compensation in excess of $1,000,000 in such taxable year of the Company (other than performance-based compensation that otherwise meets the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code).

For a discussion of the Company's executive compensation philosophy, see Compensation Discussion and Analysis included in this Proxy Statement.

Vote Required

Under our By-Laws, the affirmative vote of a majority of shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on this proposal is required for the approval of the 2007 Plan. Abstentions shall be included in determining the number of shares present and entitled to vote on the proposal, thus having the effect of a vote against the proposal. Broker non-votes are not counted in determining the number of shares present and entitled to vote and will therefore have no effect on the outcome.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

No portion of this Audit Committee Report shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, through any general statement incorporating by reference in its entirety the proxy statement in which this report appears, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this report or a portion of it by reference. In addition, this report shall not be deemed filed under either the Securities Act or the Exchange Act.

This report is submitted by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee currently consists of Steve Sobieski (Chairman), Charles Liamos and Alison de Bord. None of the members of the Audit Committee is an officer or employee of the Company. Ms. de Bord and Messrs. Sobieski and Liamos are each independent for Audit Committee purposes under the applicable rules of Nasdaq and the SEC. Messrs. Sobieski and Liamos are each an audit committee financial expert as is currently defined under SEC rules. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's accounting and financial reporting processes on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Company's management has the primary responsibility for preparing the Company's financial statements, for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, and for assessing the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, including a discussion of, among other things, the quality of the Company's accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant estimates and judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the Company's financial statements.

The Audit Committee also reviewed with Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the results of their audit and discussed matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit and Finance Committees), as currently in effect, other standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, rules of the SEC and other applicable regulations. The Audit Committee has reviewed permitted services under rules of the SEC, as currently in effect, and discussed with Ernst & Young LLP their independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit and Finance Committees), as currently in effect, and has considered and discussed the compatibility of non-audit services provided by Ernst & Young LLP with that firm's independence.

The Audit Committee meets with the independent registered public accounting firm, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations; their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, including internal control over financial reporting; and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Respectfully submitted by the Audit Committee,

Steve Sobieski (Chairman)

Table of ContentsMATTERS CONCERNING OUR INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee charter contains procedures for the pre-approval of audit and non-audit services (the Pre-Approval Policy) to ensure that all audit and permitted non-audit services to be provided to the Company have been pre-approved by the Audit Committee. Specifically, the Audit Committee pre-approves the use of Ernst & Young LLP for specific audit and non-audit services, except that pre-approval of non-audit services is not required if the de minimus provisions of Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act are satisfied. If a proposed service has not been pre-approved pursuant to the Pre-Approval Policy, then it must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee before it may be provided by Ernst & Young LLP. All of the audit-related, tax and all other services provided by Ernst & Young LLP to the Company in fiscal 2007 were approved by the Audit Committee by means of specific pre-approvals or pursuant to the Pre-Approval Policy. All non-audit services provided in 2007 were reviewed with the Audit Committee, which concluded that the provision of such services by Ernst & Young LLP was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions. For additional information concerning the Audit Committee and its activities with Ernst & Young LLP, see Management Audit Committee and Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

We expect that a representative of Ernst & Young LLP will attend the Annual Meeting, and the representative will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she so desires. The representative will also be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company and, in addition to soliciting stockholders by mail through its regular employees, the Company may request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to solicit their customers who have stock of the Company registered in the names of a nominee and, if so, will reimburse such banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket costs. Solicitation by officers and employees of the Company may also be made of some stockholders in person or by mail, telephone, e-mail or telegraph following the original solicitation.

APPENDIX A

INSULET CORPORATION

Audit Committee Charter

I. General Statement of Purpose

The primary purposes of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the Audit Committee) of Insulet Corporation (the Company) are to:

oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the Company's financial statements;

take, or recommend that the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) take, appropriate action to oversee the qualifications, independence and performance of the Company's independent auditors; and prepare the report required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

II. Composition

The Audit Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board, each of whom must (1) be independent as defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) under the Marketplace Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD); (2) meet the criteria for independence set forth in Rule 10A-3(b)(1) promulgated under Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), subject to the exemptions provided in Rule 10A-3(c) under the Exchange Act; and (3) not have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Company or a current subsidiary of the Company at any time during the past three years.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, only (1) one member of the Audit Committee must meet the requirements set forth in the preceding sentence prior to the 90th day after the effectiveness of the registration statement filed by the Company with the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), in connection with the initial public offering of the Company's common stock (the Registration Statement Effectiveness Date) and (2) a majority of the members of the Audit Committee must meet the requirements set forth in the preceding sentence prior to the date that is one year after the Registration Statement Effectiveness Date; provided that if the Company is relying on the exceptions set forth in this paragraph, the Company must disclose its assessment of whether, and if so, how, such reliance would materially adversely affect the ability of the Audit Committee to act independently and to satisfy the other requirements of Rule 10A-3 under the Exchange Act in any proxy or information statement for a meeting of stockholders at which directors are elected that is filed with the SEC pursuant to the requirements of Section 14 of the Exchange Act.

Notwithstanding the first paragraph of this section, one director who (1) is not independent as defined in Rule 4200 under the Marketplace Rules of the NASD; (2) satisfies the criteria for independence set forth in Section 10A(m)(3) of the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder; and (3) is not a current officer or employee or a Family Member of such officer or employee, may be appointed to the Audit Committee, if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Audit Committee by the individual is required by the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and the Board discloses, in the next annual proxy statement subsequent to such determination (or, if the Company does not file a proxy statement, in its Form 10-K), the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination. A member appointed under this exception may not serve on the Audit Committee for more than two years and may not chair the Audit Committee.

If the Company fails to comply with the requirements set forth in the first paragraph of this section because an Audit Committee member ceases to be independent for reasons outside the member's reasonable control, the Audit Committee member may remain on the Audit Committee until the earlier of the Company's next annual stockholders meeting or one year from the occurrence of the event that caused the failure to comply with these requirements. Additionally, if the Company fails to comply with the requirement set forth in the first paragraph that the Audit Committee consist of three members because of one vacancy on the Audit Committee, and the cure period set forth in the preceding sentence is not otherwise being relied upon for another member, the Company will have until the earlier of the next annual stockholders meeting or one year from the occurrence of the event that caused the failure to comply with this requirement.

Each member of the Audit Committee must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. At least one member of the Audit Committee shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities. One or more members of the Audit Committee shall qualify as an audit committee financial expert under the rules promulgated by the SEC or, if not, the Company shall disclose its lack of an audit committee financial expert and the reasons why in its annual report.

The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board and may be replaced or removed by the Board with or without cause. Resignation or removal of a Director from the Board, for whatever reason, shall automatically and without any further action constitute resignation or removal, as applicable, from the Audit Committee. Any vacancy on the Audit Committee, occurring for whatever reason, may be filled only by the Board. The Board shall designate one member of the Audit Committee to be Chairman of the Audit Committee. All indemnification, exculpation, expense reimbursement and advancement provisions and rights available to members of the Audit Committee in their capacities as directors of the Company shall be fully applicable with respect to their service on the Audit Committee or any subcommittee thereof.

III. Compensation

A member of the Audit Committee may not, other than in his or her capacity as a member of the Audit Committee, the Board or any other committee established by the Board, receive directly or indirectly from the Company any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the Company. A member of the Audit Committee may receive additional directors' fees (including, but not limited to, stock options) to compensate such member for the significant time and effort expended by such member to fulfill his or her duties as an Audit Committee member.

IV. Meetings

The Audit Committee shall meet as often as it determines is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities under this Charter, but not less frequently than quarterly. A majority of the members of the Audit Committee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of holding a meeting and the Audit Committee may act by a vote of a majority of the members present at such meeting. In lieu of a meeting, the Audit Committee may act by unanimous written consent. The Chairman of the Audit Committee, in consultation with the other committee members, may determine the frequency and length of the committee meetings and may set meeting agendas consistent with this Charter.

The Audit Committee may consult with management in fulfilling these duties, but may not delegate these responsibilities to management.

The Audit Committee shall be directly responsible for oversight of the work of the independent auditor (including resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting) engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company.

The Audit Committee shall instruct the independent auditor that the independent auditor shall report directly to the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall pre-approve all auditing services and the terms thereof (which may include providing comfort letters in connection with securities underwritings) and non-audit services (other than non-audit services prohibited under Section 10A(g) of the Exchange Act or the applicable rules of the SEC or the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board) to be provided to the Company by the independent auditor; provided, however, the pre-approval requirement is waived with respect to the provision of non-audit services for the Company if the de minimus provisions of Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act are satisfied. The authority to pre-approve audit and non-audit services may be delegated to one or more members of the Audit Committee, who shall present all decisions to pre-approve an activity to the full Audit Committee at its first meeting following such decision.

The Audit Committee shall evaluate the independent auditors' qualifications, performance and independence, and shall present its conclusions with respect to the independent auditors to the full Board. As part of such evaluation, at least annually, the Audit Committee shall:

obtain and review a report or reports from the independent auditor describing (1) the auditor's internal quality-control procedures, (2) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review or peer review of the auditors or by any inquiry or investigation by government or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, regarding one or more independent audits carried out by the auditors, and any steps taken to address any such issues, and (3) in order to assess the auditor's independence, all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company; and

In this regard, the Audit Committee may also (1) seek the opinion of management and the internal auditors, if any, of the independent auditors' performance and (2) consider whether, in order to assure continuing auditor independence, there should be regular rotation of the audit firm.

The Audit Committee shall assure the regular rotation of the audit partners (including, without limitation, the lead and concurring partners) as required under the Exchange Act and Regulation S-X.

The Audit Committee may recommend to the Board policies with respect to the potential hiring by the Company of current or former employees of the independent auditor.

The Audit Committee may review:

any analyses prepared by management and/or the independent auditors setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements. The Audit Committee may consider the ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments on the financial statements, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor. The Audit Committee may also consider other material written communications between the registered public accounting firm and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences;

major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies;

major issues regarding accounting principles and procedures and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles; and

The Audit Committee shall also review and discuss with the independent auditors the report required to be delivered by such auditors pursuant to Section 10A(k) of the Exchange Act.

If brought to the attention of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee shall discuss with the CEO and CFO of the Company (1) all significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and (2) any fraud involving management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions (1) with management of the audited financial statements, (2) with the independent auditor of the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61, and (3) with the independent auditor concerning the independent auditor's independence, the Audit Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board as to whether the Company's audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the last fiscal year.
