Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 12, 2007, Ormat Technologies, Inc. (the Registrant) announced that on June 7, 2007 its wholly-owned subsidiary, Ormat Nevada Inc., entered into an Agreement for Purchase of Membership Interests in OPC LLC (the Purchase Agreement) and an Amended and Restated LLC Agreement of OPC LLC (the OPC LLC Agreement), both with Morgan Stanley Geothermal LLC and Lehman-OPC LLC (the Institutional Equity Investors), in connection with the monetization of production tax credits resulting from certain of its geothermal power projects.

The geothermal power projects involved in the transaction include Desert Peak 2, Steamboat Hills, and Galena 2, all located in the State of Nevada. Ormat Nevada Inc. received $71,800,000 from the sale of partial ownership interest in the projects to the Institutional Equity Investors. The transaction also involves a second closing that is expected to occur by April 2008, subject to certain conditions, at which time Galena 3, another Ormat Nevada Inc. geothermal power project that is currently under construction in Nevada, will be brought into the joint ownership vehicle. Ormat Nevada Inc. expects to receive an additional amount of approximately $46,600,000 (subject to certain adjustments) in connection with such second closing.

Under the transaction structure, Ormat Nevada Inc. transferred the subject geothermal power projects to OPC LLC and sold limited liability company interests in OPC LLC to the Institutional Equity Investors. Ormat Nevada Inc. will continue to operate and maintain the projects and will receive initially all of the distributable cash flow generated by the projects until it gets back the capital it has invested in the projects, while the Institutional Equity Investors will receive substantially all of the production tax credits and the taxable income or loss, and the distributable cash flow after Ormat Nevada Inc. has been returned its capital. Once the Institutional Equity Investors reach a target after-tax yield on their investment in OPC LLC, Ormat Nevada Inc. will receive substantially all of both distributable cash and taxable income. Ormat Nevada Inc. also has the option to buy out the investors remaining interest in OPC LLC at the then-current fair market value or, if greater, the Institutional Equity Investors capital account balance in OPC LLC. Should Ormat Nevada Inc. exercise this purchase option, it would thereupon revert to being sole owner of the projects.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On June 12, 2007, the Registrant issued a press release announcing that its subsidiary, Ormat Nevada Inc., entered into the Purchase Agreement and the LLC Agreement with the Institutional Equity Investors. A copy of the Registrant s press release issued in connection therewith is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
