Item 5. Other Events.

On November 1, 2001, Brightpoint, Inc. issued a press release in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, which is incorporated herein by reference. Brightpoint announced that through its North American subsidiaries, Brightpoint North America L.P. and Wireless Fulfillment Services LLC ("Borrowers"), it had entered into a new revolving credit facility (the "Revolver") with a syndicate of lenders led by GE Capital to provide capital for its North American operations. The credit agreement for the Revolver in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 is incorporated herein by reference. On December 21, 2001, the Borrowers entered into an amendment and waiver to the Revolver in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 99.3, which is incorporated herein by reference. This amendment and waiver, among other things, increased borrowing availability to $90 million and waived delivery requirements for certain closure documents as well as clarified certain sections of the original agreement.

Edgar Filing: BRIGHTPOINT INC - Form 8-K

On February 8, 2002, Nora Lee, filed a complaint in the Superior Court, Marion County, Indiana, Derivatively on Behalf of Nominal Defendant Brightpoint, Inc., vs. Robert J. Laikin and James Mark Howell, John W. Adams, Rollin M. Dick, Stephen H. Simon, Todd H. Stuart, Robert F. Wagner, Jerre L. Stead, John P. Delaney and Ernst & Young, LLP and Brightpoint, Inc. as a Nominal Defendant.

The plaintiff alleges, among other things, that certain of the individual defendants sold common stock of Brightpoint while in possession of material non-public information regarding Brightpoint, that the individual defendants violated their fiduciary duties of loyalty, good faith and due care by, among other things, causing Brightpoint to disseminate misleading and inaccurate financial information, failing to implement and maintain internal adequate accounting control systems, wasting corporate assets and exposing Brightpoint to losses, and that Ernst & Young, LLP breached its contract with Brightpoint as well as its duty of due care and professional competence. The plaintiff is seeking to recover unspecified damages from all defendants, the imposition of a constructive trust for the amounts of profits received by the individual defendants who sold Brightpoint stock and recovery of reasonable litigation costs and expenses.
