Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 1, 2005, Arch Coal, Inc. (the Company) entered into both an Employment Agreement and an Indemnity Agreement with Paul H. Vining, Senior Vice President Marketing and Trading. Mr. Vining's Employment Agreement provides that the Company will continue his salary, annual incentive compensation and benefits for one year in the event Mr. Vining is constructively terminated or if he is terminated by the Company without cause during the term of the Agreement. If, however, Mr. Vining resigns for good reason or is terminated without cause within two years after a change in control of the Company, then Mr. Vining will be instead entitled to receive two-times the highest annual compensation (including incentive compensation) received by him during the prior three years. In addition, certain benefits would continue during the salary continuation period in either event.

Mr. Vining's Indemnity Agreement provides that the Company will indemnify Mr. Vining for liabilities, expenses and costs incurred by him in connection with any actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding, in which Mr. Vining is a party or participant by reason of the fact that Mr. Vining is serving as an officer of the Company. Mr. Vining would not be entitled to the benefits of the Agreement in the event it were conclusively established that (i) Mr. Vining's acts were committed in bad faith, or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, and were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and (ii) Mr. Vining in fact personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which he was not legally entitled.

In connection with his employment by the Company, Mr. Vining was also granted 25,000 shares of Restricted Stock of the Company pursuant to the terms of the Company's 1997 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended. The shares of Restricted Stock vest ratably over a period of five (5) years, assuming Mr. Vining's continued employment by the Company during such period.
