NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JUNE 12, 2008

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF BIOSANTE PHARMACEUTICALS, INC.:

The Annual Meeting of Stockholders of BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation, will be held on Thursday, June 12, 2008, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the office of Stewart & Irwin, 251 E. Ohio Street, Suite 1100, Indianapolis, Indiana, for the following purposes:

1. To elect six persons to serve as directors until our next annual meeting of stockholders or until their respective successors are elected and qualified.
2. To consider a proposal to approve the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. 2008 Stock Incentive Plan.
3. To consider a proposal to ratify the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2008.
4. To transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting.

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 15, 2008 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting and any adjournments thereof. A stockholder list will be available at BioSante's corporate offices beginning May 30, 2008 during normal business hours for examination by any stockholder registered on BioSante's stock ledger as of the record date for any purpose germane to the annual meeting.

It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the meeting. Please mark, sign, date, and mail the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

/s/ Phillip B. Donenberg
Phillip B. Donenberg
Secretary

April 29, 2008
Lincolnshire, Illinois

Important: The prompt return of your proxy card will save the company the expense of further requests for proxies to ensure a quorum at the meeting. A self-addressed envelope is enclosed for your convenience. No postage is required if mailed within the United States.

PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
June 12, 2008

The Board of Directors of BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. is soliciting your proxy for use at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders on Thursday, June 12, 2008. The Notice of Annual Meeting, this proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy are being mailed to stockholders beginning on or about April 29, 2008.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE ANNUAL MEETING

Date, Time, Place and Purposes

The Annual Meeting of Stockholders of BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. will be held on Thursday, June 12, 2008, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the office of Stewart & Irwin, 251 E. Ohio Street, Suite 1100, Indianapolis, Indiana, for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting.

Who Can Vote

Stockholders of record at the close of business on April 15, 2008 will be entitled to vote at the meeting or any adjournment of the Annual Meeting. As of that date, there were 26,798,607 shares of our common stock and 391,286 shares of our class C special stock outstanding. Each share of our common stock and class C special stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted on at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders are not entitled to cumulate voting rights.

How You Can Vote

Your vote is important. If you are a stockholder whose shares are registered in your name, you may vote your shares by completing, signing, dating and mailing the enclosed proxy card in the envelope provided. No postage is required if your proxy card is mailed within the United States.

If your shares are held in street name (through a broker, bank or other nominee), you may receive a separate voting instruction form with this proxy statement or you may need to contact your broker, bank or other nominee to determine how you will be able to vote your shares.

Table of Contents

If you return your signed proxy card, the named proxies will vote your shares as you direct. You have three choices on each matter to be voted on.

For the election of directors, you may:

Vote FOR all of the nominees for director,

WITHHOLD your vote from all of the nominees for director or

WITHHOLD your vote from one or more of the nominees for director.

For each of the other proposals, you may:

Vote FOR the proposal,

Vote AGAINST the proposal or

ABSTAIN from voting on the proposal.

If you send in your proxy card, but do not specify how you want to vote your shares, the proxies will vote your shares FOR all of the nominees for director and FOR all of the other proposals set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting.

How Does the Board of Directors Recommend that You Vote

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR all of the nominees for director and FOR the approval of all of the other proposals set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting.

How You May Revoke or Change Your Vote

If you are a stockholder whose shares are registered in your name, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the meeting by one of the following methods:

Submitting another proper proxy with a more recent date than that of the proxy first given by completing, signing, dating and returning a proxy card to us.

Sending written notice of revocation to our Corporate Secretary.

Attending the Annual Meeting and voting by ballot.

Quorum Requirement

The presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority (13,399,304 shares) of the outstanding shares of our common stock and a majority (195,644 shares) of the outstanding shares of our class C special stock as of the record date will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. In general, shares of our common stock and shares of our class C special stock represented by a properly signed and returned proxy card will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum. Shares represented by proxies marked Abstain or Withheld are counted in determining whether a quorum is present. In addition, a broker non-vote is considered in determining whether a quorum is present. A broker non-vote is a proxy returned by a broker on behalf of its beneficial owner customer that is not voted on a particular matter because voting instructions have not been received by the broker from the customer, and the broker does not have discretionary authority to vote on behalf of such customer on such matter.

Vote Required

Assuming a quorum is represented at the Annual Meeting, either in person or by proxy, (1) the election of the six nominees for director requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of common stock and class C special stock, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, and (2) the approval of each of the other proposals described in this proxy statement, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock and class C special stock, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, voting together as a single class.

If your shares are held in street name and you do not indicate how you wish to vote, your broker is permitted to exercise its discretion to vote your shares on certain routine matters that include the election of directors (Proposal 1) and the ratification of the selection of our independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal 3). If you do not direct your broker how to vote on the proposal to approve the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. 2008 Stock Incentive Plan (Proposal 2), which is not considered a routine matter, your broker may not exercise discretion and may not vote your shares. This is called a broker non-vote. Broker non-votes are not considered to be entitled to vote on Proposal 2, and will therefore not be counted in determining the votes cast on that matter, although broker non-votes are considered in determining whether a quorum is present. Abstentions and withheld votes will be counted, and will have the effect of a negative vote.

Procedures at the Annual Meeting

The presiding officer at the Annual Meeting will determine how business at the meeting will be conducted. Only matters brought before the Annual Meeting in accordance with our bylaws will be considered.

Only a natural person present at the Annual Meeting who is either one of our stockholders or is acting on behalf of one of our stockholders may make a motion or second a motion. A person acting on behalf of a stockholder must present a written statement executed by the stockholder or the duly authorized representative of the stockholder on whose behalf the person purports to act.

Table of ContentsSTOCK OWNERSHIP*Stock Ownership of Principal Stockholders and Management

The following table sets forth information known to us with respect to the beneficial ownership of each class of our capital stock as of April 15, 2008 for (1) each person known by us to beneficially own more than five percent of any class of our voting securities, (2) each of our directors and nominees for director, (3) each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table under the heading "Executive Compensation" and (4) all of our directors and executive officers as a group, including our named executive officers.

Shares are deemed to be beneficially owned by a person if such person, directly or indirectly, has sole or shared power to vote or to direct the voting of such shares or sole or shared power to dispose or direct the disposition of such shares. Except as otherwise indicated, we believe that each of the beneficial owners of our capital stock listed below, based on information provided by these owners, has sole dispositive and voting power with respect to its shares, subject to community property laws where applicable. Shares not outstanding but deemed beneficially owned by virtue of the right of a person or member of a group to acquire them within 60 days are treated as outstanding only when determining the amount and percent owned by such person or group. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes below, the address for each of the stockholders in the table below is c/o BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 111 Barclay Boulevard, Lincolnshire, IL 60069.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires our directors and executive officers and all persons who beneficially own more than 10 percent of the outstanding shares of our common stock to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of our common stock. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10 percent beneficial owners are also required to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. To our knowledge, based on review of the copies of such reports and amendments to such reports furnished to us with respect to the year ended December 31, 2007, and based on written representations by our directors and executive officers, all required Section 16 reports under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, for our directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of greater than 10 percent of our common stock were filed on a timely basis during the year ended December 31, 2007.

Number of Directors

Our bylaws provide that the Board of Directors will consist of at least one member, or such other number as may be determined by the Board of Directors or our stockholders. The Board of Directors has fixed the number of directors at six.

Nominees for Director

The Board of Directors has nominated the following six individuals to serve as our directors until the next annual meeting of our stockholders or until their successors are elected and qualified. All of the nominees named below are current members of the Board of Directors.

Louis W. Sullivan, M.D.

Stephen M. Simes

Fred Holubow

Peter Kjaer

Ross Mangano

Edward C. Rosenow III, M.D.

Proxies can only be voted for the number of persons named as nominees in this proxy statement, which is six.

Board Designation Rights

Under an employment letter agreement we entered into with Mr. Simes in January 1998 in connection with his acceptance of our offer of employment as an executive officer of our company, Mr. Simes agreed to serve as a director of our company and we agreed to nominate him as a nominee for director and solicit proxies for his election so long as Mr. Simes is employed by us.

Vote Required

Assuming a quorum is represented at the Annual Meeting, either in person or by proxy, the election of a nominee for director requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of common stock and class C special stock represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting, voting together as a single class.

Board Recommendation

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the election of all of the six nominees named above. If prior to the Annual Meeting, the Board of Directors should learn that any nominee will be unable to serve for any reason, the proxies that otherwise would have been voted for this nominee will be voted for a substitute nominee as selected by the Board of Directors. Alternatively, the proxies, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, may be voted for that fewer number of nominees as results from the inability of any nominee to serve. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable to serve.

Table of ContentsInformation About Board Nominees

The following table sets forth certain information that has been furnished to us by each director who has been nominated by the Board of Directors to serve as a director of our company.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines. A copy of these Corporate Governance Guidelines can be found on the Investors Corporate Governance section of our corporate website at www.biosantepharma.com. A printed copy of these Corporate Governance Guidelines is available to any stockholder upon request to our Corporate Secretary at BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 111 Barclay Boulevard, Lincolnshire, Illinois 60069, telephone: (847) 478-0500 ext. 120. Among the topics addressed in our Corporate Governance Guidelines are:

- Board size, composition and qualifications;
- Selection of directors;
- Board leadership;
- Board committees;
- Board and committee meetings;
- Executive sessions of outside directors;
- Meeting attendance by directors and non-directors;
- Appropriate information and access;
- Ability to retain advisors;
- Conflicts of interest;
- Board interaction with corporate constituencies;
- Change of principal occupation and board memberships;
- Retirement and term limits;
- Board compensation;
- Stock ownership by directors and executive officers;
- Loans to directors and executive officers;
- CEO evaluation;
- Board evaluation;
- Director continuing education; and
- Succession planning.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that each of our directors, except for Mr. Simes, is an independent director as defined under the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market. The Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market provide a non-exclusive list of persons who are not considered independent. No director qualifies as independent unless the Board of Directors affirmatively determines that the director does not have a material relationship with the listed company that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment. In making an affirmative determination that each of our directors, except for Mr. Simes, is an independent director, the Board of Directors reviewed and discussed information provided by the directors and by us with regard to each director's business and personal activities as they may relate to us and our management.

Board Meetings and Attendance; Executive Sessions

The Board of Directors met eight times during 2007. All of our directors attended 75 percent or more of the aggregate meetings of the Board of Directors and all committees on which they served during 2007. During 2007, at each regular Board meeting our independent directors met in executive session with no company management present.

Table of ContentsBoard Committees

The Board of Directors has a standing Audit and Finance Committee, Compensation Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Scientific Review Committee, each of which has the composition and responsibilities described below. The Board of Directors may from time-to-time establish other committees to facilitate the management of our company and may change the composition and the responsibilities of our existing committees. Each committee has a charter which can be found on the Investors Corporate Governance Board Committees section of our corporate website at www.biosantepharma.com. A printed copy of each committee charter is also available to any stockholder upon request to our Corporate Secretary at BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 111 Barclay Boulevard, Lincolnshire, Illinois 60069, telephone: (847) 478-0500 ext. 120.

The following table summarizes the current membership of each of our four Board committees. Each of the members of the Audit and Finance Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is an independent director under the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market.

Audit and Finance Committee

Responsibilities. The Audit and Finance Committee provides assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibilities for oversight, for quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing, reporting practices, systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the annual independent audit of our financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs of BioSante as established by management. The Audit and Finance Committee's primary responsibilities include:

overseeing our accounting and financial reporting processes, systems of internal control over financial reporting and disclosure control and procedures on behalf of the Board of Directors and reporting the results or findings of its oversight activities to the Board;

having sole authority to appoint, retain and oversee the work of our independent registered public accounting firm and establishing the compensation to be paid to the independent registered public accounting firm;

establishing procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls and/or or auditing matters and for the confidential, anonymous submission by our employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters;

reviewing and pre-approving all audit services and permissible non-audit services to be performed for us by our independent registered public accounting firm as provided under the federal securities laws and rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission; and overseeing our system to monitor and manage risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs, including the establishment and administration (including the grant of any waiver from) a written code of ethics applicable to each of our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions.

The Audit and Finance Committee has the authority to engage the services of outside experts and advisors as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Composition. The Audit and Finance Committee currently consists of Mr. Holubow, Mr. Kjaer and Dr. Sullivan. Mr. Holubow is the current chair of the Audit and Finance Committee.

Each current member of the Audit and Finance Committee qualifies as independent for purposes of membership on audit committees pursuant to the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market and the rules and regulations of the SEC and is financially literate as required by Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market. In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Holubow qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the rules and regulations of the SEC and meets the qualifications of financial sophistication under the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market as a result of his Masters in Business Administration in Finance, and his experience as an investment analyst and portfolio manager for over 40 years and as a member of an audit committee of another public company. Stockholders should understand that these designations related to the Audit and Finance Committee members experience and understanding with respect to certain accounting and auditing matters do not impose upon any of them any duties, obligations or liabilities that are greater than those generally imposed on a member of the Audit and Finance Committee or of the Board of Directors.

Meetings and Other Information. The Audit and Finance Committee met four times during 2007. At all of these meetings, the Audit and Finance Committee met in private session with our independent registered public accounting firm during a portion of the meeting. Additional information regarding the Audit and Finance Committee and our independent registered public accounting firm is disclosed under the Audit and Finance Committee Report and Ratification of Selection of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm (Proposal 3) sections of this proxy statement.

Audit and Finance Committee Report

This report is furnished by the Audit and Finance Committee of the Board of Directors with respect to our financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007.

One of the purposes of the Audit and Finance Committee is to oversee our accounting and financial reporting processes and the audit of our annual financial statements. Our management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of complete and accurate financial statements. Our independent registered public accounting firm, Deloitte & Touche LLP, is responsible for performing an independent audit of our financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and for issuing a report on their audit.

In performing its oversight role, the Audit and Finance Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007 with our management. Management represented to the Audit and Finance Committee that our financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit and Finance Committee has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP, our independent registered public accounting firm, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU 380), as in effect for our fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The Audit and Finance Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as in effect for our fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The Audit and Finance Committee has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP its independence and concluded that the independent registered public accounting firm is independent from our company and our management.

Based on the review and discussions of the Audit and Finance Committee described above, in reliance on the unqualified opinion of Deloitte & Touche LLP regarding our audited financial statements, and subject to the limitations on the role and responsibilities of the Audit and Finance Committee described above and in the Audit and Finance Committee's charter, the Audit and Finance Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 be included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This report is dated as of March 11, 2008.

Compensation Committee

Responsibilities. The Compensation Committee discharges the responsibilities of the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of our executive officers and reviews, assesses and approves overall company strategies for attracting, developing, retaining and motivating management. The primary responsibilities of the Compensation Committee include:

recommending to the Board of Directors for its determination the annual salaries, incentive compensation, long-term incentive compensation, special or supplemental benefits or perquisites and any and all other compensation applicable to our chief executive officer and other executive officers;

reviewing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding any revisions to corporate goals and objectives with respect to compensation for our chief executive officer and other executive officers and establishing and leading a process for the full Board of Directors to evaluate the performance of our chief executive officer and other executive officers in light of those goals and objectives;

administering our equity compensation plans applicable to any employee of our company and recommend to the Board of Directors specific grants of options and other awards for all executive officers and determining specific grants of options and other awards for all other employees, under our equity compensation plans;

making recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding our incentive compensation plans applicable to our executive officers, including the annual establishment of (i) eligible employees, (ii) performance goals, and (iii) target incentive compensation levels; and

annually reviewing and discussing with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of our proxy statement in connection with our annual meeting of stockholders and based on such review and discussions make a recommendation to the Board of Directors as to whether the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section should be included in our proxy statement in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and any other applicable regulatory bodies.

The Compensation Committee has the authority to engage the services of outside experts and advisors as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Composition. The Compensation Committee currently consists of Dr. Sullivan, Mr. Mangano and Dr. Rosenow, each of whom is considered an independent director under the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market and a non-employee director within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Dr. Sullivan is the current chair of the Compensation Committee.

Processes and Procedures for Consideration and Determination of Executive Compensation. As described in more detail above under the heading Responsibilities, the Board of Directors has delegated to the Compensation Committee the responsibility, among other things, to make recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding any and all compensation payable to our executive officers, including annual salaries, incentive compensation, long-term incentive compensation and any special or supplemental benefits or perquisites. The Board of Directors has also delegated to the Compensation Committee the responsibility to administer our equity and incentive compensation plans applicable to any employee of our company and to recommend to the Board of Directors specific grants of options and other awards for all executive officers and determine specific grants of options and other awards for all other employees, under our equity compensation plans. In March 2007, the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, amended the Compensation Committee's formal written charter, to provide for decisions by the Compensation Committee regarding the compensation of our executive officers to be in the form of recommendations to the Board of Directors, instead of final decisions, with the final decisions on such matters being decided by the entire Board of Directors. Under the terms of its formal written charter, the Compensation Committee has the power and authority to delegate any of its duties and responsibilities to subcommittees as the Compensation Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. Historically, the Compensation Committee has not generally delegated any of its duties and responsibilities to subcommittees, but rather has taken such actions as a committee, as a whole.

Our President and Chief Executive Officer, Stephen M. Simes, assists the Compensation Committee in gathering compensation related data regarding our executive officers, including himself, and making recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding the form and amount of compensation to be paid to each executive officer, including himself. Mr. Simes attends most Compensation Committee meetings at the invitation of the Compensation Committee; however, neither Mr. Simes nor any other executive officer is present during any discussions, final deliberations and decisions regarding executive officer compensation.

Historically, our President and Chief Executive Officer had engaged a compensation consultant on behalf of our company to gather competitive executive compensation data to assist the Compensation Committee in determining executive compensation. However, beginning in January 2007, the Compensation Committee has retained a compensation consultant to assist it in determining executive compensation. After conducting a request for proposal process at the end of 2006 and the beginning of 2007, the Compensation Committee engaged Top Five Data Services, Inc. in January 2007 to guide the Compensation Committee in gathering compensation data and developing recommendations regarding the form and amount of compensation to be paid to our executive officers. In March 2007, certain individuals of Top Five Data Services, Inc. left Top Five Data Services, Inc. and formed their own compensation consulting business named Remedy Compensation Consulting. The Compensation Committee then engaged Remedy Compensation Consulting to perform the services previously assigned to Top Five Data Services, Inc. Remedy Compensation Consulting does not advise our management and only works with management with the express permission of the Compensation Committee.

In making final decisions regarding compensation to be paid to our executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers the recommendations of our President and Chief Executive Officer and the compensation consultant, but also considers other factors, such as its own views as to the form and amount of compensation to be paid, compensation information regarding other companies in our industry sector, the achievement by the company of performance objectives and the achievement by the individual officers of individual goals, the general performance of the company and the individual officers, the performance of the company's stock price and other factors that may be relevant.

Meetings and Other Information. The Compensation Committee met eight times during 2007. Additional information regarding the Compensation Committee is disclosed under the Compensation Discussion and Analysis and Executive Compensation Compensation Committee Report sections of this proxy statement.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

Responsibilities. The primary responsibilities of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are:
identifying individuals qualified to become Board members;

recommending director nominees for each annual meeting of our stockholders and director nominees to fill any vacancies that may occur between meetings of stockholders;

being aware of the best practices in corporate governance and developing and recommending to the Board of Directors a set of corporate governance standards to govern the Board of Directors, its committees, the company and its employees in the conduct of the business and affairs of the company;

developing and overseeing the annual Board and Board committee evaluation process; and establishing and leading a process for determination of the compensation applicable to the non-employee directors on the Board.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has the authority to engage the services of outside experts and advisors as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Processes and Procedures for Consideration and Determination of Director Compensation. As described in more detail above under the heading Responsibilities, the Board of Directors has delegated to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee the responsibility, among other things, to establish and lead a process for determination of compensation payable to our non-employee directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee makes recommendations regarding compensation payable to our non-employee directors to the entire Board of Directors, which then makes the final decisions. Under the terms of its formal written charter, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has the power and authority to delegate any of its duties and responsibilities to subcommittees as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. Historically, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has not generally delegated any of its duties and responsibilities to subcommittees, but rather has taken such actions as a committee, as a whole.

In November 2007, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee engaged Remedy Compensation Consulting, a compensation consulting firm, to conduct a competitive assessment to assist the Board of Directors in determining director compensation. Remedy Compensation Consulting conducted an assessment of the following pay elements: cash compensation, including annual retainers and meeting fees; equity grants, including stock options; and additional compensation paid to Board committee chairs and members. The assessment was based on the practices of the peer group companies that were used to evaluate the market competitiveness of executive pay, as discussed under the heading Compensation Discussion and Analysis Setting Executive Compensation Use of Peer Group Data later in this proxy statement. In March 2008, the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, approved changes to our non-employee director compensation package as described under the heading Director Compensation Overview later in this proxy statement.

Composition. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee currently consists of Dr. Sullivan, Mr. Holubow, Mr. Kjaer, Mr. Mangano and Dr. Rosenow, each of whom is an independent director within the meaning of the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market. Dr. Sullivan is the current chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Meetings and Other Information. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met four times during 2007. Additional information regarding the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is disclosed under the Director Nominations Process and Director Compensation Overview sections of this proxy statement.

Scientific Review Committee

Responsibilities. The Scientific Review Committee assists the Board of Directors in evaluating potential new licenses or new products and reviewing ongoing activities of our current products. The Scientific Review Committee has the authority to engage the services of outside experts and advisors as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Composition. The Scientific Review Committee currently consists of Dr. Sullivan, Mr. Holubow and Dr. Rosenow. Dr. Sullivan is the current chair of the Scientific Review Committee.

Meetings. The Scientific Review Committee met once during 2007.

Director Nominations Process

Pursuant to a Director Nominations Process adopted by the Board of Directors, in selecting nominees for the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee first determines whether the incumbent directors are qualified to serve, and wish to continue to serve, on the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee believes that our company and its stockholders benefit from the continued service of qualified incumbent directors because those directors have familiarity with and insight into our company's affairs that they have accumulated during their tenure with the company. Appropriate continuity of Board membership also contributes to the Board's ability to work as a collective body. Accordingly, it is the practice of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, in general, to re-nominate an incumbent director at the upcoming annual meeting of stockholders if the director wishes to continue his or her service with the Board, the director continues to satisfy the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's criteria for membership on the Board, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee believes the director continues to make important contributions to the Board, and there are no special, countervailing considerations against re-nomination of the director.

Pursuant to the Director Nominations Process adopted by the Board of Directors, in identifying and evaluating new candidates for election to the Board, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee intends to first solicit recommendations for nominees from persons whom the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee believes are likely to be familiar qualified candidates having the qualifications, skills and characteristics required for Board nominees from time to time. Such persons may include members of the Board of Directors and senior management of BioSante. In addition, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may engage a search firm to assist it in identifying qualified candidates. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee then intends to review and evaluate each candidate whom it believes merits serious consideration, taking into account available information concerning the candidate, any qualifications or criteria for Board membership established by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the existing composition of the Board, and other factors that it deems relevant. In conducting its review and evaluation, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may solicit the views of our management, other Board members, and any other individuals it believes may have insight into a candidate. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may designate one or more of its members and/or other Board members to interview any proposed candidate.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider recommendations for the nomination of directors submitted by our stockholders. For more information, see the information set forth under the heading "Other Matters - Director Nominations for 2009 Annual Meeting." The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate candidates recommended by stockholders in the same manner as those recommended as stated above.

There are no formal requirements or minimum qualifications that a candidate must meet in order for the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to recommend the candidate to the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee believes that each nominee should be evaluated based on his or her merits as an individual, taking into account the needs of our company and the Board of Directors. However, in evaluating candidates, there are a number of criteria that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee generally views as relevant and is likely to consider. Some of these factors include:

- whether the candidate is an independent director under the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market and meets any other applicable independence tests under the federal securities laws and rules and regulations of the SEC;

- whether the candidate is financially sophisticated and otherwise meets the requirements for serving as a member of an audit committee under the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market;

- whether the candidate is an audit committee financial expert under the rules and regulations of the SEC;

- the needs of our company with respect to the particular talents and experience of our directors;

Table of Contents

the personal and professional integrity and reputation of the candidate;

the candidate's level of education and business experience;

the candidate's broad-based business acumen;

the candidate's level of understanding of our business and its industry and other industries relevant to our business;

the candidate's ability and willingness to devote adequate time to work of the Board of Directors and its committees;

the fit of the candidate's skills and personality with those of other directors and potential directors in building a board of directors that is effective, collegial and responsive to the needs of our company;

whether the candidate possesses strategic thinking and a willingness to share ideas;

the candidate's diversity of experiences, expertise and background; and the candidate's ability to represent the interests of all stockholders and not a particular interest group.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

Our Code of Conduct and Ethics applies to all of our directors, executive officers, including our President and Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, and other employees, and meets the requirements of the SEC. A copy of our Code of Conduct and Ethics can be found on the Investors' Corporate Governance Code of Conduct and Ethics section of our corporate website at www.biosantepharma.com. A printed copy of such Code of Conduct and Ethics is also available to any stockholder upon request to our Corporate Secretary at BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 111 Barclay Boulevard, Lincolnshire, Illinois 60069, telephone: (847) 478-0500 ext. 120.

Policy Regarding Director Attendance at Annual Meetings of Stockholders

It is the policy of the Board of Directors that directors standing for re-election should attend our annual meeting of stockholders, if their schedules permit. All of the directors attended our annual meeting of stockholders in June 2007, except for Mr. Kjaer and Mr. Mangano.

Complaint Procedures

The Audit and Finance Committee has established procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by us regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, and the submission by our employees, on a confidential and anonymous basis, of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. Our personnel with such concerns are encouraged to discuss their concerns with their supervisor first, who in turn will be responsible for informing our Compliance Officer of any concerns raised. Our President and Chief Executive Officer, Stephen M. Simes, currently serves as our Compliance Officer. If an employee prefers not to discuss a particular matter with his or her own supervisor, the employee may instead discuss such matter with our Compliance Officer. If an individual prefers not to discuss a matter with the Compliance Officer or if the Compliance Officer is unavailable and the matter is urgent, the individual is encouraged to contact the Chair of the Audit and Finance Committee, Fred Holubow.

Process Regarding Stockholder Communications with Board of Directors

Stockholders may communicate with the Board of Directors or any one particular director by sending correspondence, addressed to our Corporate Secretary, BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 111 Barclay Boulevard, Suite 280, Lincolnshire, IL 60069, with an instruction to forward the communication to the Board of Directors or one or more particular directors. Our Corporate Secretary will promptly forward all such stockholder communications to the Board of Directors or the one or more particular directors, with the exception of any advertisements, solicitations for periodical or other subscriptions and other similar communications.

Table of ContentsDIRECTOR COMPENSATION*Summary of Cash and Other Compensation

The following table provides summary information concerning the compensation of each individual who served as a director of our company during the year ended December 31, 2007, other than Stephen M. Simes, our Vice Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Simes is not compensated separately for serving on the Board of Directors or any of the Board committees. His compensation for serving as an executive officer of our company is set forth under the heading Executive Compensation.

Overview

As described in more detail under the heading Corporate Governance Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Responsibilities included elsewhere in this proxy statement, the Board of Directors has delegated to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee the responsibility, among other things, to establish and lead a process for the determination of compensation payable to our non-employee directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee makes recommendations regarding compensation payable to our non-employee directors to the entire Board of Directors, which then makes the final decisions. The processes and procedures the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board of Directors use to consider and determine director compensation are described under the heading Corporate Governance Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Processes and Procedures for Determination of Director Compensation included elsewhere in this proxy statement.

The principal elements of our director compensation program for 2007 included:

annual cash retainers;

meeting fees;

reimbursement of expenses; and long-term equity-based incentive compensation, in the form of stock options.

In November 2007, we engaged Remedy Compensation Consulting, a compensation consulting firm, to conduct a competitive assessment of non-employee director compensation of companies in our industry sector to assist the Board of Directors in determining non-employee director compensation. We have defined our industry sector as a peer group of 21 other publicly-held life science companies, with net sales and market capitalizations similar to ours. All but one of the peer companies had less than $30 million in annual net sales for the most recent fiscal year prior to the survey, with most of such companies, like our company, having either minimal or no net sales. All of the peer companies had market capitalizations as of a recent date prior to the survey of between approximately one-half and two times that of our then market capitalization ($85.7 million to $296.8 million). We also chose these companies for inclusion in our peer group based on other business characteristics similar to ours, including stage of development, types of products sold or developed and employee headcount. We use the same peer group for purposes of analyzing our executive compensation. We refer you to the information under the heading "Compensation Discussion and Analysis - Setting Executive Compensation - Use of Peer Group Data" for the names of the companies in our peer group and for additional information regarding the peer group.

Remedy Compensation Consulting conducted an assessment of the following pay elements: cash compensation, including annual retainers and meeting fees; equity grants, including stock options; and additional Board and Board committee chair and member compensation. In determining director compensation, we target total compensation and each element of compensation at the median of our industry sector. According to the findings of Remedy Compensation Consulting, our total direct compensation for our non-employee directors was slightly above the median of our peer companies. Although our annual cash retainer for Board service was at the 75th percentile of our peer companies, our total cash compensation was below the market median of our peer companies. With respect to our equity compensation, in terms of the number of options granted, our initial and recurring option grants were below the 50th percentile, but in terms of value delivered, our annual option grant was above the 50th percentile. Our total additional compensation for our Chairman of the Board and Board committee chairs was below the 50th percentile.

In March 2008, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommended to the Board of Directors changes to our non-employee director compensation. The Board of Directors approved the recommendations at its regular meeting in March 2008. The changes approved by the Board of Directors are as follows and were effective immediately:

Increase the in-person Board meeting fee from $1,000 to $2,000 and increase the telephonic Board and Board committee meeting fee from $500 to $1,000;

Increase the annual retainer fee to the chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee from $5,000 to $10,000 and introduce an annual retainer fee for the chairman of each of the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of $5,000;

Introduce an initial option grant of 15,000 shares of common stock to non-employee directors, upon their initial election to the Board of Directors, which stock option would vest in four equal annual installments;

Introduce an annual option grant of 10,000 shares of common stock to non-employee directors, which stock option would vest in one year; and

Introduce an annual option grant of 5,000 shares of common stock to the Chairman of the Board, which stock option would vest one year from the date of grant.

Cash Compensation

We pay each of our non-employee directors an annual cash retainer of $20,000, paid on a quarterly basis. In addition, we pay the Chairman of the Board an additional $25,000 in annual cash compensation. In 2007, we paid the Chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee an additional $5,000 in annual cash compensation, which increased to $10,000 in March 2008. Beginning in March 2008, we began to pay the Chairman of the Compensation Committee and the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee an additional $5,000 in annual cash compensation. These additional payments are also paid on a pro-rata quarterly basis.

In 2007, we paid each of our non-employee directors an additional cash fee of $1,000 for each Board or Board committee meeting attended in person and $500 for each Board or Board committee meeting attended via telephone. In March 2008, these per meeting fees increased to $2,000 for in-person Board meetings and $1,000 for telephonic Board and Board committee meetings.

We do not compensate Mr. Simes separately for serving on the Board of Directors or any of the Board committees. We do, however, reimburse each member of the Board of Directors, including Mr. Simes, for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attending Board and Board committee meetings.

Stock Options

From time to time in the past, we have granted options to purchase shares of our common stock to our non-employee directors. We have not historically had a consistent policy of granting stock options to our non-employee directors and instead have granted options on a periodic basis. Prior to 2006, we had not granted any stock options to our non-employee directors since January 2001. In March 2006, we granted each non-employee director a catch-up ten-year option to purchase 40,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant, which options were immediately exercisable on the date of grant. Also in March 2006, we granted each non-employee director an ten-year option to purchase 10,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant, which options are exercisable in equal installments on an annual basis over a three-year vesting period, commencing in March 2007. The date of grant for these purposes was the date on which the corporate approval for the option grant was obtained.

During 2007, the Board of Directors did not grant any options to our non-employee directors.

Beginning in March 2008, we began a program in which we will grant on an annual basis ten-year options to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant to our non-employee directors and an additional ten-year option to purchase 5,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant to our Chairman of the Board. These annual stock options will be granted on the last business day of each March and will vest on the one-year anniversary of the date of grant.

We refer you to footnote 2 to the Director Compensation Table above for a summary of all options to purchase shares of our common stock held by our directors, excluding Mr. Simes, as of December 31, 2007. Information regarding stock option grants to Mr. Simes during the year ended December 31, 2007 is set forth under the heading Executive Compensation Grants of Plan-Based Awards and information regarding all stock options held by Mr. Simes as of December 31, 2007 is set forth under the heading Executive Compensation Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year End.

Indemnification Agreements

We have entered into agreements with all of our directors under which we are required to indemnify them against expenses, judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred, including expenses of a derivative action, in connection with an actual or threatened proceeding if any of them may be made a party because he or she is or was one of our directors. We will be obligated to pay these amounts only if the director acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests. With respect to any criminal proceeding, we will be obligated to pay these amounts only if the director had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The indemnification agreements also set forth procedures that will apply in the event of a claim for indemnification.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Overview

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis section describes the material elements of the compensation awarded to, earned by or paid to our two executive officers who are considered named executive officers as a result of their officer positions and the amount of compensation they earned during the year ended December 31, 2007. This discussion analyzes the information contained in the tables and related footnotes and narrative under the heading Executive Compensation found elsewhere in this proxy statement. In so doing, this discussion describes our compensation objectives, philosophy, policies and practices with respect to our named executive officers. Although this discussion focuses primarily on compensation awarded to, earned by and paid to our named executive officers during 2007, this discussion also describes compensation actions taken prior to and after 2007 to the extent it enhances the understanding of or gives context to our executive compensation disclosure for 2007.

Objectives and Philosophy of Our Executive Compensation Program

Our executive compensation program is designed to:

attract and retain executives important to the success of our company and the creation of value for our stockholders;

motivate our executives to achieve company and individual performance objectives and create stockholder value;

reward our executives for the achievement of company and individual performance objectives, the creation of stockholder value in the short and long term and their contributions, in general, to the success of our company; and impose consequences for company, individual and stock price underperformance.

In order to achieve these objectives, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors make compensation decisions based on the following philosophy and principles:

We favor having a significant component of variable compensation tied to attainment of company objectives and achievement of individual goals over solely fixed compensation.

We seek to reward achievement of key company objectives, such as successful clinical testing, obtaining regulatory approvals for our products, executing in-licensing and out-licensing agreements, entering into strategic relationships to market and sell our products and raising additional financing on terms favorable to our company, that create value for our stockholders and ultimately and presumably should result in an increase in our stock price.

A greater percentage of total compensation should be tied to performance and stock price, and therefore at risk, as position and responsibility increases. Individuals, such as our named executive officers, with greater roles and responsibilities associated with achieving our company's objectives should bear a greater proportion of the risk that those objectives are not achieved and our stock price decreases than other employees and should receive a greater proportion of the reward if objectives are met or surpassed and our stock price increases.

We seek to align the interests of our executives with the interests of our stockholders through the use of long-term, equity-based incentive compensation, in the form of stock options, and further emphasized through our corporate governance standards which encourage our executives to maintain a financial stake in our company.

Setting Executive Compensation

Based on the objectives of our executive compensation program, the Compensation Committee and Board of Directors have structured our annual and long-term incentive-based cash and non-cash executive compensation program to motivate our executives to achieve the business goals established by the Board of Directors and reward our executives for achieving these goals.

Role of Compensation Committee. As described in more detail under the heading Corporate Governance Compensation Committee Responsibilities and Corporate Governance Compensation Committee Processes and Procedures for Consideration and Determination of Executive Compensation found elsewhere in this proxy statement, decisions regarding executive compensation made by the Compensation Committee prior to March 2007 were considered final and were not generally subject to review or ratification by the Board of Directors. In March 2007, however, the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, amended the Compensation Committee's formal written charter, to provide for decisions by the Compensation Committee regarding the compensation of our executive officers to be in the form of recommendations to the Board of Directors, instead of final decisions, with the final decisions on such matters to be decided by the entire Board of Directors. The processes and procedures the Compensation Committee used to consider and determine executive compensation for 2007 are described under the heading Corporate Governance Compensation Committee Processes and Procedures for Consideration and Determination of Executive Compensation found elsewhere in this proxy statement.

Input from Management. Our President and Chief Executive Officer, Stephen M. Simes, assists the Compensation Committee in gathering compensation related data regarding our executive officers, including himself, and making recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding the form and amount of compensation to be paid to each executive officer, including himself. In making final decisions regarding compensation to be paid to our executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers the recommendations of our President and Chief Executive Officer, but also considers other factors, such as its own views as to the form and amount of compensation to be paid, peer group data provided by independent compensation consultants, the achievement by the company of performance objectives and the achievement by the individual officers of individual goals, the general performance of the company and the individual officers, the performance of the company's stock price and other factors that may be relevant. Final deliberations and decisions by the Compensation Committee or the Board of Directors regarding the form and amount of compensation to be paid to our executive officers, including our President and Chief Executive Officer, for 2007 performance were made by the Board of Directors without the presence of our President and Chief Executive Officer or any other executive officer of our company.

Use of Compensation Consultants. Historically, our President and Chief Executive Officer has engaged a compensation consultant on behalf of our company to gather competitive executive compensation data to assist our compensation committee in determining executive compensation. In December 2006, our management engaged Top Five Data Services, Inc., a compensation consulting firm, to conduct an executive compensation competitive assessment to assist the Compensation Committee in determining our executive officers' base salaries, cash bonuses and stock option grants. Top Five Data Services, Inc. conducted an assessment of the following pay elements: base salary, cash bonuses, stock options and total direct compensation. Top Five Data Services, Inc. also reviewed the stock option holdings of our executive officers in comparison to the market. After conducting a request for proposal process at the end of 2006 and the beginning of 2007, the Compensation Committee engaged Top Five Data Services, Inc. in January 2007 to assist the Compensation Committee in gathering compensation data and developing recommendations regarding the form and amount of compensation to be paid to our executive officers. In March 2007, certain individuals of Top Five Data Services, Inc. left Top Five Data Services, Inc. and formed their own compensation consulting business named Remedy Compensation Consulting. The Compensation Committee then engaged Remedy Compensation Consulting to perform the services previously assigned to Top Five Data Services, Inc.

At the end of 2007 in anticipation of making compensation decisions regarding base salaries for 2008 and annual bonuses for 2007 performance, the Compensation Committee engaged Remedy Compensation Consulting again to prepare an updated executive compensation analysis. In addition, the Compensation Committee also engaged Remedy Compensation Consulting to prepare an executive staffing study and a study of severance and change in control arrangements. For purposes of these two studies, the same peer group of 21 companies used for the executive compensation analysis as described in more detail below was used.

Remedy Compensation Consulting's engagement with BioSante includes reviewing and advising on all significant aspects of executive compensation. This includes base salaries, bonuses and equity awards, as well as severance and change in control arrangements. The Chairman of the Compensation Committee, Louis W. Sullivan, M.D., consults with a representative of Remedy Compensation Consulting prior to most Compensation Committee meetings. A representative of Remedy Compensation Consulting from time-to-time is also invited to attend meetings of the Compensation Committee and Board of Directors. Remedy Compensation Consulting does not advise our management and only works with management with the express permission of the Compensation Committee.

Use of Peer Group Data. During the past several years, our compensation consultant has conducted an annual executive compensation competitive assessment of the base salaries, annual bonus opportunity, total cash compensation, stock options and total direct compensation paid to our executive officers and reviewed the option holdings of our executive officers in comparison to similar executives of other companies in our industry sector. The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors have used such information to assist them in determining the amount of base salary, annual incentive compensation, total compensation and the form and amount of long-term equity-based incentive compensation to pay our named executive officers.

In 2007, we worked with Remedy Compensation Consulting to define a peer group of 21 other publicly-held life science companies, with net sales and market capitalizations similar to ours. All but one of the peer companies had less than $30 million in annual net sales for the most recent fiscal year prior to the survey, with most of such companies, like our company, having either minimal or no net sales. All of the peer companies had market capitalizations as of a recent date prior to the survey of between approximately one-half and two times that of our then market capitalization ($85.7 million to $296.8 million). We also chose these companies for inclusion in our peer group based on other business characteristics similar to ours, including stage of development, types of products sold or developed and employee headcount. The companies in our peer group include the following:

While the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors recognize that benchmarking may not always be appropriate as a stand-alone tool for setting compensation due to the aspects of our business and objectives that may be unique to our company, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors, nevertheless, believe that gathering this information is an important part of its compensation-related decision-making process.

Determination of Amount of Compensation. Our executive compensation program as a whole and each individual element of the program is designed to be market competitive in order to attract, motivate and retain executives necessary to the achievement of our company objectives. We generally target total compensation and each element of total compensation at the median of our industry sector. In determining the amount of compensation to pay our named executive officers, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors generally consider factors, such as:

the executive's position within the company and the level of responsibility, skills and experience required by the executive's position;

the executive's experience and qualifications;

our ability to replace such individual and the overall competitive environment for executive talent;

the attainment of or failure to attain company objectives and the difficulty in achieving desired company objectives;

individual performance of the executive as measured in isolation and in comparison to certain goals discussed in advance by the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors and the individual executive;

current and historical compensation levels;

the executive's length of service to our company;

peer group compensation data gathered by our compensation consultant; and other considerations the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors deem relevant.

Determination of Form of Compensation. The principal elements of our executive compensation program include base salary, annual incentive compensation, long-term equity-based incentive compensation, in the form of stock options, and other compensation as described in more detail below under the heading Elements of Our Executive Compensation Program. In determining the form of compensation to pay our named executive officers, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors view these elements of our executive compensation program as related but distinct. Although the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors review total compensation, they do not believe that significant compensation derived by an executive from one element of our compensation program should necessarily negate or result in a reduction in the amount of compensation the executive receives from other elements or that, conversely, minimal compensation derived from one element of compensation should necessarily result in an increase in the amount the executive should receive from one or more other elements of compensation.

Except as described below, neither the Compensation Committee nor the Board of Directors has adopted any formal or informal policies or guidelines for allocating compensation between long-term and currently paid out compensation, between cash and non-cash compensation, or among different forms of non-cash compensation. However, the philosophy of the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors is to make a greater percentage of an executive's compensation performance-based, and therefore at risk, as the executive's position and responsibility increases given the influence that more senior level executives generally have on company performance. It is also the view of the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors to keep cash compensation to the minimum competitive level (which we define to be the median of the peer group) while providing the opportunity to be appropriately rewarded through long-term equity-based incentive compensation, in the form of stock options, if the company's stock price performs well over time. Thus, individuals with greater roles and responsibilities associated with achieving our company's objectives and thus presumably increasing our stock price should bear a greater proportion of the risk that those goals are not achieved and our stock price decreases than other employees and should receive a greater proportion of the reward if objectives are met or surpassed and our stock price increases.

Elements of Our Executive Compensation Program

The principal elements of our executive compensation program for 2007 included:

base salary;

annual incentive compensation;

long-term equity-based incentive compensation, in the form of stock options; and all other compensation, such as perquisites.

Base Salary. We provide a base salary for our named executive officers, which, unlike some of the other elements of our executive compensation program, is not subject to company or individual performance risk. We recognize the need for most executives to receive at least a portion of their total compensation in the form of a guaranteed base salary that is paid in cash regularly throughout the year to support their standard of living.

We initially fix base salaries for our executives at a level we believe enables us to hire and retain them in a competitive environment and to reward satisfactory individual performance and a satisfactory level of contribution to our overall business objectives. We also take into account the base compensation that is payable by companies in our peer group.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors review base salaries for our named executive officers each year beginning in December and generally approve any increases for the following year in January or as soon as practicable thereafter. Regardless of when the final decision regarding base salaries for a calendar year is made, any increases in base salaries are effective as of January 1 of that year, which could result in a retroactive payment to the executive shortly after the final decision is made.

In determining the amount of base salaries for our named executive officers, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors strive to target base salaries at the median of the range of salaries for executives in similar positions and with similar responsibilities at companies in our peer group. The median was selected to assure that we pay approximately the same for a given position in the marketplace, without over- or under-compensating an executive. Deviation from the median may be determined to be appropriate based on the Compensation Committee's and the Board's assessment of the responsibilities of the position, and the executive's performance and experience, recognizing that not all positions are directly correlated at different companies and not all individuals have the same talents as their peers.

The determinations of the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors regarding the base salaries of our named executive officers are based on a number of factors, including: the executive's position within the company and the level of responsibility, skills and experiences required by the executive's position; the executive's experience and qualifications; our ability to replace such individual and the overall competitive environment for executive talent; the executive's current base salary; the executive's length of service to our company, the executive's past performance and the impact of such performance on the attainment of company objectives; competitive compensation data; and other considerations the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors deem relevant.

The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors also recognize that in addition to the typical responsibilities and duties held by our executives by virtue of their positions, our executives often possess additional responsibilities and perform additional duties that would be typically delegated to others in most organizations with additional personnel and resources due to the small number of our employees. This recognition was confirmed by the results of an executive staffing analysis performed by Remedy Compensation Consulting for the Compensation Committee in December 2007. The focus of the analysis was on executive staffing levels, in terms of numbers and aggregate compensation levels, compared to selected metrics, including number of employees, market capitalization and revenue. The peer group of companies used in the executive staffing analysis was the same group of 21 peer companies used in the executive compensation analysis. The results of the executive staffing analysis showed that our company as of the measurement date had significantly fewer executives and employees than the companies in our peer group and our total executive base pay levels were low in comparison to our peer companies and our market capitalization per executive was high in comparison to our peer companies.

Finally, in determining base salaries each year, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors take into consideration employment letter agreements with our named executive officers, which obligate our company absent any consent by the executive officer to increase the base salaries of our named executive officers each year, at a minimum rate consistent with any increase in the Consumer Price Index.

Annual Incentive Compensation. We provide our named executive officers the opportunity for annual incentive compensation, which is designed to provide a direct financial incentive to our executives for the achievement of annual performance objectives of our company and individual goals of the executives. As required under the terms of letter agreements we entered into with our two executive officers in connection with offering them employment approximately 10 years ago, we provide Stephen M. Simes, our President and Chief Executive Officer, the opportunity to earn up to 50 percent of his base salary and Phillip B. Donenberg, our Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, the opportunity to earn up to 30 percent of his base salary, each year in the form of a performance bonus. The Board of Directors has the discretion to pay a bonus to these executives in excess of these percentages and indeed did so for 2007 performance. The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, determines the amount of the bonus each year for each executive based on, among other things, the achievement of informal performance objectives of our company and individual goals by the executive. Conceptual performance objectives and individual goals for each executive for any given year are discussed among the executives and the Compensation Committee during the beginning of the year but are not formally established or agreed upon in advance. After the completion of each year, the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee and excluding the President and Chief Executive Officer who is not present during these discussions, determines, the amount of annual performance bonus to be paid to each executive. Such determination is made after first receiving input from Mr. Simes as to his views of the amount of bonus each executive, including himself, should receive. In determining the final amount of annual performance bonus to be paid to each executive, the Board of Directors considers the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, input received from Mr. Simes, the Board's own views as to the achievement of company performance and individual executive goals as discussed in concept at the beginning of the year, the general performance of the company and the executives during the year regardless of any specific objectives discussed in the beginning of the year, the performance of the company's stock price during the year, competitive compensation data and other relevant factors. The amount of annual cash bonuses paid to our named executive officers is highly discretionary and has been highly variable from year to year.

Although for the past few years, the annual performance bonus has been paid entirely in cash, it has also in the past been paid one-half in cash and one-half in shares of our common stock. In addition, although in the past the annual performance bonus has been paid to executives in one lump sum shortly after the determination of the amount, the annual performance bonus for 2007 performance, similar to last year's performance bonus, will be paid to executives in two installments: one-half in January 2008 and the remaining amount on December 31, 2008 or sooner, subject to the discretion of the Compensation Committee, so long as the executive remains an employee of our company as of such date or if not employed as of such date was terminated by us without cause. In addition, the second installment payment would be made to the executives immediately upon any change of control of our company, including a merger or acquisition of our company. The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, decided to defer the payment of the second half of the 2007 discretionary cash bonus to add a retention value to the second payment and to a lesser extent to conserve our cash resources.

Long-Term Equity-Based Incentive Compensation. Although we do not have any detailed stock retention or ownership guidelines, the Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Standards that address ownership of our common stock by our named executive officers and which encourage our executives to have a financial stake in our company in order to align the interests of our stockholders and management. We, therefore, provide long-term equity-based incentive compensation to our named executive officers, as well as to all of our employees, in the form of stock options. Although, as mentioned above, we have paid in the past a portion of the annual performance bonus in shares of our common stock through stock grants, we have not done so for the past several years and thus have used stock options as our sole method of long-term equity-based incentive compensation.

We believe that stock options are an important part of our overall compensation program. Through the grant of stock options, we seek to align the long-term interests of our executives and other employees with the long-term interests of our stockholders by creating a strong and direct linkage between compensation and long-term stockholder return. When our executives deliver returns to our stockholders, in the form of increases in our stock price or otherwise, stock options permit an increase in their compensation. Thus, stock options also may enable us to attract, retain and motivate executives and other employees by maintaining competitive levels of total compensation. However, unless our stock price increases after the stock option grants are made, they deliver no value to the option holders.

All of our stock options have been granted under the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan, which has been approved by our stockholders. Under the 1998 plan, we have the ability to grant stock options, stock awards and stock units. To date, only incentive and non-statutory stock options and stock awards have been granted. The 1998 plan contains both an overall limit on the number of shares of our common stock that may be issued, as well as individual and other grant limits. For more information regarding the terms of our 1998 plan, we refer you to Executive Compensation Grants of Plan-Based Awards BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan.

Since our 1998 plan expires in December 2008, the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, has approved a new stock incentive plan, which we are submitting to our stockholders for their consideration at our 2008 annual meeting of stockholders. Although the new stock incentive plan is an omnibus plan that permits the grant of equity-based incentive awards besides stock options, such as restricted stock, restricted stock units, stock appreciation rights, performance units and stock bonuses, the Board of Directors and Compensation Committee presently intend to grant only stock options under the new stock incentive plan for the foreseeable future. The Board of Directors and Compensation Committee adopted the omnibus stock incentive plan to maintain as much flexibility as possible with respect to equity-based compensation going forward.

In March 2007, we adopted a Policy and Procedures Regarding the Grant of Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Incentive Awards. Under the policy, the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, has the authority to grant options to directors, and upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, has the authority to grant options to executive officers. Grants to be made in connection with new hires and promotions of executive officers will be recommended by our President and Chief Executive Officer and will be considered and acted upon by the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, at the next Board of Directors meeting or by unanimous written consent resolutions, or in the case of executive officers, as part of their compensation package at the time of hire or promotion. Current executive officers and other employees are eligible for option grants thereafter on a periodic basis. We do not have, nor have we ever had, a program, plan or practice to time stock option grants to executives in coordination with the release of material nonpublic information.

The policy also sets forth the general terms and conditions of our stock option grants. We generally grant incentive stock options within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in order to provide our executives and other employees the additional tax benefit associated with incentive stock options, which we believe at this time as a result of our net loss position outweighs our interest in obtaining the federal corporate income tax deduction which would be available if we granted non-statutory stock options. The stock options granted to our executives and other employees typically vest or become exercisable over a period of three years from the date of grant, with one-third of the underlying shares vesting in each year on the anniversary of the date of grant, so long as the optionee continues to be employed by us. Stock options typically remain exercisable for a period of 10 years from the date of grant, so long as the optionee continues to be employed by us. We have also in the past and may in the future grant performance-based stock options that vest upon the attainment of certain performance milestones.

It is our policy to set the per share exercise price of all stock options granted under the plan at an amount equal to the fair market value of a share of our common stock on the date of grant. The date of grant for these purposes means the date on which the corporate approval for the option grant was obtained, which means the date on which the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee met and approved the option grant. For purposes of our 1998 plan, the fair market value of our common stock is the mean between the reported high and low sale price of our common stock, as reported by the NASDAQ Stock Market. We may not under the terms of our 1998 plan, without prior approval of our stockholders, seek to effect any re-pricing of any previously granted underwater option. For purposes of the 1998 plan, an option is deemed to be underwater at any time when the fair market value of our common stock is less than the exercise price. Other typical terms of the stock options we grant to our executives and other employees are described elsewhere in this proxy statement under the heading Executive Compensation Grants of Plan-Based Awards BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan. The material terms of our proposed new 2008 stock incentive plan are described elsewhere in this proxy statement under the heading Approval of 2008 Stock Incentive Plan (Proposal 2).

We review the long-term equity-based incentives for our named executive officers, on an individual basis and on an aggregate basis, at the time we determine performance bonuses for the previous year and base salaries for the current year. The determination of the Board of Directors regarding the number of stock options to grant our named executive officers is based on the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and a number of other factors, including: the executive's position within the company and the level of responsibility, skills and experiences required by the executive's position; the executive's experience and qualifications; our ability to replace such individual and the overall competitive environment for executive talent; the attainment of or failure to attain company objectives and the difficulty in achieving desired company objectives; individual performance of the executive as measured in isolation and in comparison to certain goals set by the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors and the individual executive; the executive's length of service to our company; the executive's percentage ownership of our common equity outstanding, including stock options, and compensation data from companies in our peer group, including outstanding options held by an executive as a percentage of our common equity outstanding.

All Other Compensation. It is generally our policy not to extend significant perquisites and other benefits to our executives that are not generally available to our employees. The only significant perquisites that we provide to our named executive officers are those that are required under the terms of their employment letter agreements. Both of our named executive officers receive a monthly auto allowance and reimbursement for excess long-term disability insurance premiums and taxes associated with the premiums. Stephen M. Simes, our President and Chief Executive Officer, receives reimbursement for excess term life insurance premiums and taxes associated with the premiums. Our executives also receive benefits, which are also received by our other employees, including 401(k) matching contributions, health, dental and life insurance benefits, and reimbursement for certain health club costs, not to exceed $600 per year, per employee. We do not provide pension arrangements or post-retirement health coverage for our employees, including our executives. We also do not provide any nonqualified defined contribution or other deferred compensation plans. Our executive compensation program includes change in control arrangements and post-termination severance arrangements, which are provided under our 1998 plan and the employment letter agreements with our executives, as described in more detail below under the heading " Change in Control and Post-Termination Severance Arrangements.

Analysis of Named Executive Officer Compensation Arrangements for 2007 Stephen M. Simes

Overview. As President and Chief Executive Officer, Stephen M. Simes has overall responsibility for the execution of our annual and long-term company objectives and strategy. Under Mr. Simes' leadership, during 2007, our first ever U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approved product, Elestrin (formerly known as Bio-E-Gel®), was commercially launched by our exclusive licensee, Nycomed US

Table of Contents

Inc. (formerly Bradley Pharmaceuticals, Inc.) and we made significant progress in the development of LibiGel®, which we anticipate could be a very successful product if approved by the FDA. Specifically, during 2007, under Mr. Simes' management and direction:

We reached agreements with the FDA on key FDA requirements for the development and approval of LibiGel in the treatment of female sexual dysfunction (FSD), specifically, hypoactive sexual desire disorder (HSDD), including in particular the LibiGel Phase III safety study protocol and the LibiGel Phase III clinical trial design, clinical endpoints, sample size, planned conduct and statistical analyses. The latter agreement was confirmed in writing by the FDA through the special protocol assessment (SPA) process in January 2008. As a result, we believe we now have a clearly defined, reasonable, feasible and affordable LibiGel development path that can lead to the approval of LibiGel.

Our marketing licensee, Nycomed, commercially launched Elestrin in the U.S. entitling us to receive royalties on Elestrin sales.

A new patent issued covering the formulations used in LibiGel and Elestrin, which patent will expire on June 25, 2022 and lists Mr. Simes as an inventor of the formulation.

We and a subsidiary of Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. signed an amendment to our development and license agreement under which Teva and us will reinitiate our collaboration on the development of our male testosterone therapy gel, Bio-T-Gel, for the U.S. market.

We sub-licensed U.S. rights to a new triple hormone oral contraceptive to Pantarhei Bioscience B.V. (Pantarhei), a Netherlands-based pharmaceutical company, under which Pantarhei is responsible for all expenses to develop and market the product and we may receive certain development and regulatory milestones for the first product developed under the license and royalty payments on any sales of the product in the U.S., if and when approved and marketed.

We entered into a license agreement covering the use of our patented calcium phosphate nanotechnology (CaP) as a facial filler (BioLook) in aesthetic medicine with Medical Aesthetics Technology Corporation (MATC) under which MATC will be responsible for continued development of the product, including required clinical trials, regulatory filings and all manufacturing and marketing associated with the product and we received an ownership position in MATC of about five percent and may receive certain milestone payments and royalties as well as share in certain payments if MATC sublicenses the technology.

We transferred our common stock listing from the American Stock Exchange to the NASDAQ Global Market.

We raised $18.7 million in a private placement of shares of our common stock at a purchase price of $6.00 per share, plus warrants.

Two new analysts commenced coverage of our company with buy recommendations.

Table of Contents

We successfully managed SEC review of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 with no restatements necessary and few prospective disclosure undertakings.

Our stock price increased 36.5 percent from $2.77 on December 29, 2006 to $3.78 on December 31, 2007, compared to an average annual decrease of 22.4 percent for the 21 companies in our peer group.

Base Salary. Mr. Simes' base salary for 2007 was $394,000, which represented an approximately five percent increase over his base salary for 2006. In establishing Mr. Simes' base salary for 2007 and specifically approving a five percent increase over his base salary for 2006, the Compensation Committee considered competitive market data gathered by the Compensation Committee's compensation consultant which indicated that Mr. Simes' base salary was competitive with the base salaries of other chief executive officers of companies in our peer group, the company's and his individual performance during 2007, the fact that he had not received a base salary increase in 2006, and our obligation under Mr. Simes' employment letter agreement to increase his base salary each year by at least a minimum rate consistent with any increase in the Consumer Price Index.

The Compensation Committee recently established Mr. Simes' 2008 base salary at $417,640, which represents a six percent increase over his base salary for 2007. In establishing Mr. Simes' base salary for 2008, the Board of Directors believed that although competitive market data gathered by the Compensation Committee's compensation consultant indicated that Mr. Simes' base salary was slightly higher than the median of base salaries of other chief executive officers of companies in our peer group, a six percent increase in Mr. Simes' base salary was appropriate in light of the company's and his individual performance during 2007.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Mr. Simes received a discretionary cash bonus of $256,100 for his 2007 performance, which represents 65.0 percent of his base salary for 2007 and 29.1 percent of his total compensation for 2007 as calculated for purposes of the Summary Compensation Table found later in this proxy statement. In approving Mr. Simes' discretionary cash bonus for 2007, the Board of Directors recognized, among other achievements by our company in 2007, the progress made during 2007 to achieve clarity from the FDA on key FDA requirements for the development and approval of LibiGel, efforts to continue to sublicense our hormone therapy products and the completion of our June 2007 financing. The Board of Directors also recognized certain individual contributions by Mr. Simes during 2007, including in particular his role in our company achievements during 2007. The Compensation Committee also noted the price of our common stock, which despite the fact that the price had decreased from its high of $8.00 during second quarter 2007, the price was still up 36.5 percent during 2007.

The Board of Directors specifically approved the payment of one-half of the bonus in January 2008 and the remaining one-half of the bonus on December 31, 2008, or sooner, subject to the discretion of the Compensation Committee, so long as Mr. Simes remains an employee of our company as of such date or if not employed as of such date was terminated by us without cause. In addition, the second installment payment would be made to Mr. Simes immediately upon any change of control of our company, including a merger or acquisition of our company. The Board of Directors decided to defer the payment of the second half of Mr. Simes' discretionary cash bonus to add a retention value to the second payment and to a lesser extent to conserve cash resources.

Long-Term Equity-Based Incentive Compensation. In January 2007, the Compensation Committee granted Mr. Simes an option to purchase 250,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $2.775 per share, which represented the fair market value of our common stock, as determined under our stock plan, on the date of grant. The date of grant was the date on which the Compensation Committee met and approved the option grant. In determining the number of stock options to grant Mr. Simes, the Compensation Committee took into consideration: (1) the fact that Mr. Simes had not received any stock option grants since May 2003; (2) the fact that all of his then current stock option holdings were exercisable and vested; (3) the company and Mr. Simes individual performance during 2006; (4) the fact that according to competitive data gathered by the Compensation Committee's compensation consultant, most companies in our company's peer group grant equity awards, such as stock options, on an annual basis, to their executive officers; and (5) the fact that according to competitive data gathered by Compensation Committee's compensation consultant, Mr. Simes option holdings expressed as a percentage of our common equity outstanding were significantly below the median of our peer group. In January 2008, the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, granted Mr. Simes an option to purchase 100,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $3.995 per share, which represented the fair market value of our common stock, as determined under our stock plan, on the date of grant. The date of grant was the date on which the Board of Directors met and approved the option grant. In determining the number of stock options to grant Mr. Simes in January 2008, the Board of Directors took into consideration: (1) the company and Mr. Simes individual performance during 2007 and (2) the fact that according to competitive data gathered by the Compensation Committee's compensation consultant, most companies in our company's peer group grant equity awards, such as stock options, on an annual basis, to their executive officers.

All Other Compensation. All other compensation paid to Mr. Simes during 2007 amounted to $41,859, which represented 10.6 percent of his base salary for 2007 and 4.8 percent of his total compensation for 2007 as calculated for purposes of the Summary Compensation Table found later in this proxy statement. All other compensation paid to Mr. Simes during 2007 consisted of a car allowance in the amount of $12,000, reimbursement of premiums for supplemental term life and long-term disability insurance in the amount of approximately $12,804 and taxes associated with such premiums in the amount of approximately $6,805 and a 401(k) matching contribution in the amount of $10,250, which match is available to all employees. We are required under the terms of our employment letter agreement with Mr. Simes to provide the $1,000 per month car allowance, which amount has not changed since the execution of his agreement in January 1998, and to provide Mr. Simes supplemental term life and long-term disability insurance.

Total Compensation Mix. The table below illustrates how total compensation for Mr. Simes was allocated between performance and non-performance based components, how performance based compensation is allocated between short-term and long-term components and how total compensation is allocated between cash and equity components. For purposes of this table, our long-term equity-based compensation (including the amount of long-term equity incentives included in total compensation) is based on its grant date fair value computed in accordance with FAS 123R, which is different than the manner in which this amount is calculated for purposes of the Summary Compensation Table. See Executive Compensation Summary of Cash and Other Compensation.

Consistent with the philosophy of our executive compensation program, the majority of Mr. Simes' 2007 compensation was performance-based. As a performance driven culture we favor having a significant component of variable compensation tied to results and achievement over solely fixed compensation. To align the interests of our named executive officers with the interests of our stockholders, the majority of the performance-based compensation paid to Mr. Simes in 2007 was in the form of long-term equity incentives and a significant part of his 2007 total compensation paid was equity based.

Analysis of Named Executive Officer Compensation Arrangements for 2007 Phillip B. Donenberg

Overview. As Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, Phillip B. Donenberg has overall responsibility for our company's financial and accounting matters, Securities and Exchange Commission filings, corporate governance matters and investor relations. Due to his position and responsibilities, Mr. Donenberg played a significant role in connection with the following activities during 2007:

the execution of our agreements with Teva, Pantarhei and MATC;

the completion of our financing transaction in which we raised $18.7 million in a private placement of shares of our common stock at a purchase price of $6.00 per share, plus warrants;

the transfer of our common stock listing from the American Stock Exchange to the NASDAQ Global Market;

the commencement of coverage of our company with buy recommendations by two new analysts; and the successful management of the SEC review of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 which resulted in no restatements and few prospective disclosure undertakings.

Table of Contents

In addition, the Compensation Committee and Board recognized Mr. Donenberg for the following during 2007: timely and efficient financial statement quarterly reviews, annual financial audit and SEC filings; effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as well as our internal control over financial reporting;

successful negotiation of significant fee waivers and fee savings related to our insurance costs and SOX 404 readiness and testing; and enhanced corporate governance efforts.

Base Salary. Mr. Donenberg's base salary for 2007 was $219,000, which represented a five percent increase over his base salary for 2006. In establishing Mr. Donenberg's base salary for 2007 and specifically approving a five percent increase over his base salary for 2006, the Compensation Committee considered the fact that Mr. Donenberg's base salary was significantly below the median of base salaries of other chief financial officers of companies in our peer group and recognized Mr. Donenberg's strong individual performance during 2006.

The Board of Directors recently established Mr. Donenberg's 2008 base salary at $232,140, which represents a six percent increase over his base salary for 2007. In establishing Mr. Donenberg's base salary for 2008, the Board of Directors considered the progress the company made towards its goals during 2007 and Mr. Donenberg's contributions towards such progress. The Board also considered the fact that Mr. Donenberg's base salary was still significantly below the median of base salaries of other chief financial officers of companies in our peer group and again recognized Mr. Donenberg's strong individual performance during 2007.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Mr. Donenberg received a discretionary cash bonus of $87,600 for his 2007 performance, which represents 40.0 percent of his base salary for 2007 and 17.1 percent of his total compensation for 2007 as calculated for purposes of the Summary Compensation Table found later in this proxy statement. In approving Mr. Donenberg's discretionary cash bonus for 2007, the Board of Directors recognized, among other achievements by our company in 2007, the completion of our June 2007 financing and the commencement of coverage of our company with buy recommendations by two new analysts. The Board of Directors also recognized certain individual contributions by Mr. Donenberg during 2007, including: timely and efficient financial statement audits and reviews, timely and efficient SEC filings, improved investor relations and improved corporate governance efforts. As with Mr. Simes' discretionary bonus, in approving Mr. Donenberg's discretionary cash bonus for 2007, the Board of Directors specifically approved the payment of the bonus in two installments under the same conditions and for the same reasons as explained above.

Long-Term Equity-Based Incentive Compensation. In January 2007, the Compensation Committee granted Mr. Donenberg an option to purchase 50,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $2.775 per share, which represented the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant as determined under our 1998 plan. In determining the number of stock options to grant Mr. Donenberg in January 2007, the Compensation Committee took into consideration: (1) the company's performance during 2006; (2) Mr. Donenberg's individual performance during 2006 and (3) the fact that according to competitive data gathered by our compensation consultant, most companies in our peer group grant equity awards, such as stock options, on an annual basis, to their executive officers.

In January 2008, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Donenberg an option to purchase 60,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $3.995 per share, which represented the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant as determined under our stock plan. In determining the number of stock options to grant Mr. Donenberg in January 2008, the Board of Directors took into consideration: (1) the company's performance during 2007; (2) Mr. Donenberg's individual performance during 2007 and (3) the fact that according to competitive data gathered by our compensation consultant, most companies in our peer group grant equity awards, such as stock options, on an annual basis, to their executive officers.

In July 2005, Mr. Donenberg was granted a stock option to purchase 25,000 shares of our common stock, which option was to vest upon the achievement of certain performance goals. In February 2007, the Compensation Committee determined that certain performance goals had been achieved, thereby resulting in the vesting of 20,000 shares underlying the option. The performance goals that had been achieved or partially achieved included (1) outlicensing a product, (2) becoming a leader and working on employee relations, (3) the initiation of coverage by an investment bank or third party and (4) the involvement in activities to enhance investor/public relations. In March 2008, the Compensation Committee determined that certain additional performance goals had been achieved, thereby resulting in the vesting of the remaining 5,000 shares underlying the option. The performance goals that had been achieved included the completion of our June 2007 financing and the initiation of coverage by two new analysts.

All Other Compensation. All other compensation paid to Mr. Donenberg during 2007 amounted to $19,109, which represented 8.7 percent of his base salary for 2007 and 3.7 percent of his total compensation for 2007 as calculated for purposes of the Summary Compensation Table found later in this proxy statement. All other compensation paid to Mr. Donenberg during 2007 consisted of a car allowance in the amount of $7,200, a 401(k) matching contribution in the amount of $7,750 and reimbursement of the premium for supplemental long-term disability insurance of $3,222 and taxes associated with such premium in the amount of $927. We are required under the terms of our employment letter agreement with Mr. Donenberg to provide the $600 per month car allowance, which amount has not changed since the execution of his agreement in April 1998. Unlike in the case of Mr. Simes, however, we are not required to provide Mr. Donenberg supplemental term life and long-term disability insurance under his agreement.

Total Compensation Mix. The table below illustrates how total compensation for Mr. Donenberg was allocated between performance and non-performance based components, how performance based compensation is allocated between short-term and long-term components and how total compensation is allocated between cash and equity components. For purposes of this table, our long-term equity-based compensation (including the amount of long-term equity incentives included in total compensation) is based on its grant date fair value computed in accordance with FAS 123R, which is different than the manner in which this amount is calculated for purposes of the Summary Compensation Table. See Executive Compensation Summary of Cash and Other Compensation.

Consistent with the philosophy of our executive compensation program, a significant portion of Mr. Donenberg's 2007 compensation was performance-based. As a performance driven culture we favor having a significant component of variable compensation tied to results and achievement over solely fixed compensation. Change in Control and Post-Termination Severance Arrangements

Overview. The BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan and the individual agreements entered into in connection with the grant of stock options under such plan provide for the immediate vesting of all stock options then held by our named executive officers, as well as all other employees, upon the completion of a change in control of our company. In addition, our named executive officers have employment letter agreements with us that provide for certain severance payments and benefits upon the termination of their employment with us under certain circumstances, including upon a change in control of our company. These payments and benefits include a lump sum cash payment, in the case of Mr. Simes, or installment cash payments, in the case of Mr. Donenberg, equal to one year's total compensation, in the case of Mr. Simes, and one year's base salary, in the case of Mr. Donenberg, as well as continued benefits for a certain minimum time period. These arrangements, including the quantification of the payment and benefits provided under these arrangements, are described in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement under the heading "Executive Compensation Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control." The employment letter agreements with our named executive officers which provide for these severance and change in control arrangements were entered into in connection with our hiring them as executive officers, which in the case of Mr. Simes was in January 1998, and in the case of Mr. Donenberg was in June 1998. These agreements have not been materially amended since April 1999. Nonetheless, we still believe that the severance and change in control protections provided in the agreements are relevant and an important part of our executive compensation program. We believe such protections continue to provide important retention value, especially during critical time periods of our company's development and life cycle. A study conducted by our outside compensation consultant indicated that similar protections are provided by 95% of the companies in our peer group, and thus we believe we must continue to offer such protections in order to be competitive.

Change in Control Arrangements. We believe the change in control provisions in our 1998 stock plan and the employment letter agreements are particularly important. Pursuant to the terms of our 1998 stock plan and our proposed new stock incentive plan, all stock options held by our named executive officers (as well as all other optionees) would become immediately vested and exercisable upon the completion of a change in control of our company. Thus, the immediate vesting of stock options would be triggered by the change in control and thus is known as a single trigger change in control arrangement. While we recognize that single trigger change in control arrangements are sometimes criticized as creating a windfall for optionees, we, nonetheless, believe such arrangements are appropriate since they provide important retention value during what can often be an uncertain time for employees and provide executives additional financial motivation to complete a transaction that the Board of Directors believes is in the best interests of our stockholders. If an executive were to leave prior to the completion of the change in control, non-vested awards held by the executive would terminate. Based on a study conducted by our compensation consultant of change in control arrangements of the other companies in our peer group we believe that single trigger vesting of equity awards also is consistent with the change in control arrangements of many companies in our peer group.

In order for our named executive officers to receive any other payments or benefits as a result of a change in control of our company, however, there must be a termination event, such as a termination of the executive's employment by us without cause or a termination of the executive's employment by the executive for good reason. The employment agreements provide our named executive officers the ability to terminate their employment for good reason either while a change in control transaction is pending (and if it is reasonably expected to close within one year) or within two years following a change in control.

If any payments to a named executive officer under the employment letter agreements or otherwise are considered contingent upon a change in control for purposes of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and would therefore constitute a parachute payment under the Internal Revenue Code, then such payments would be reduced to the largest amount as will result in no portion of such payments being subject to the tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Severance Arrangements. The employment letter agreements with our named executive officers also provide for severance benefits in the event we terminate an executive's employment without cause or the executive terminates his employment for good reason. If Mr. Simes or Mr. Donenberg's employment is terminated by us without cause or by the executive for good reason, the executive would be entitled to a severance payment, as well as continued health, dental, disability and other benefits are described in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement under the heading Executive Compensation Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control.

Rationale for Change in Control and Severance Arrangements. We believe our change in control and severance arrangements are an important part of our executive compensation program due to the important retention and motivational value. We believe our change in control arrangements mitigate some of the risk that exists for executives working in a small company where there is a meaningful likelihood that the company may be acquired. These arrangements are intended to attract and retain qualified executives who may have employment alternatives that may appear to them in light of a possible change in control to be less risky absent these arrangements. We also believe based on the severance and change in control arrangements study conducted by our compensation consultant that the change in control provisions in our 1998 stock plan and in our proposed new 2008 stock incentive plan and the severance and change in control arrangements provided in the employment letter agreements with our named executive officers are consistent with the design provisions and benefit levels of many other companies in our peer group.

Accounting and Tax Considerations

We account for equity compensation paid to our employees under the rules of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement of Accounting Financial Standards (SFAS) No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment, which requires us to estimate and record an expense over the service period of the award. Accounting rules also require us to record cash compensation as an expense at the time the obligation is accrued. Unless and until we achieve sustained profitability, the availability to us of a tax deduction for compensation expense will not be material to our financial position. We structure our cash compensation so that it is taxable to our executives at the time it becomes available to them. We currently intend that all cash compensation paid will be tax deductible for us. However, with respect to equity compensation awards, all of our named executive officers have received equity compensation awards in the form of incentive stock options, which would not entitle us to any related tax deduction if there is no disqualifying disposition by the optionee. However, some of the incentive stock options that were issued exceeded the $100,000 per year dollar limitation (with respect to exercisability) set forth in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the incentive stock options issued in excess of this $100,000 per year limitation will be treated as non-qualified stock options for tax purposes. We will, therefore, be entitled to a tax deduction in the year in which the non-qualified stock option is exercised in an amount equal to the amount by which the fair market value of the shares underlying the non-qualified stock options on the date of exercise exceeds the option exercise price. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits to $1,000,000 per person the amount that a publicly held company may deduct for compensation paid to each of its chief executive officer and its next three most highly compensated officers (but excluding the CFO) to $1 million per year. Since none of our named executive officers received compensation over $1 million during 2007, we were not affected by the limitations of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Simes Employment Letter Agreement. In January 1998, we entered into an employment letter agreement with Stephen M. Simes pursuant to which Mr. Simes serves as our Vice Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board of Directors. The current term of this agreement continues until December 31, 2010. On January 1 of each year, the term is automatically extended for an additional one year unless on or before October 1 immediately preceding the extension, either party gives written notice to the other of the termination of the agreement or cessation of further extensions. Under the agreement, Mr. Simes is entitled to a base salary in an amount determined by the Board of Directors, which base salary, however, must be adjusted upward each year at a minimum equal to changes in the Consumer Price Index. Mr. Simes is entitled to receive an annual performance bonus of up to 50 percent of his then base salary. The amount of the bonus will be determined in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, as recommended by Compensation Committee. Mr. Simes is also entitled to a monthly stipend of $1,000 for automobile use, reimbursement of premiums for supplemental term life and long-term disability insurance and taxes associated with such premiums and four weeks paid vacation each year. If Mr. Simes is terminated without cause or upon a change in control or if he terminates his employment for good reason, he will be entitled to certain payments and benefits as described in more detail under the heading " Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control. Under the agreement,

Mr. Simes is subject to customary assignment of inventions, confidentiality and non-competition provisions.

Donenberg Employment Letter Agreement. In June 1998, we entered into an employment letter agreement with Phillip B. Donenberg pursuant to which Mr. Donenberg serves as our Chief Financial Officer. The term of this agreement continues until either party gives 30 days written notice to the other of the termination of the agreement. Under the agreement, Mr. Donenberg is entitled to a base salary in an amount determined by the Board of Directors, which base salary, however, must be adjusted upward each year at a minimum equal to changes in the Consumer Price Index. Mr. Donenberg is entitled to receive an annual performance bonus of up to 30 percent of his then base salary. The amount of the bonus will be determined in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, as recommended by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Donenberg is also entitled to a monthly stipend of $600 for automobile use and three weeks paid vacation each year. If Mr. Donenberg is terminated without cause or upon a change in control or if he terminates his employment for good reason, he will be entitled to certain payments and benefits as described in more detail under the heading " Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control. Under the agreement, Mr. Donenberg is subject to customary assignment of inventions, confidentiality and non-competition provisions.

Annual Performance Bonus. As required under the terms of their employment letter agreements, we provide Messrs. Simes and Donenberg the opportunity to earn an annual performance bonus each year in an amount equal to up to 50 percent of Mr. Simes' base salary and up to 30 percent of Mr. Donenberg's base salary. The Board of Directors has the ability to award a higher bonus if it believes a higher bonus is warranted. The Board of Directors determines the amount of the bonus each year for each executive based on, among other things, input received from Mr. Simes, its own views as to the achievement by the company of performance objectives and the achievement by the individual executives of individual goals, the general performance of the company and the executives during the year, the performance of the company's stock price during the year and other factors that may be relevant during any given year. For 2007 performance, Mr. Simes received an annual performance bonus in the amount of $256,100, representing approximately 65 percent of his base salary for 2007, and Mr. Donenberg received an annual performance bonus in the amount of $87,600, representing approximately 40 percent of his base salary for 2007. The annual performance bonus for 2007 will be paid entirely in cash in two installments: one-half in January 2008 and the remaining amount on December 31, 2008, or sooner, subject to the discretion of the Compensation Committee, so long as the executive remains an employee of our company as of such date or if not employed as of such date was terminated by us without cause. In addition, the second installment payment would be made to the executive immediately upon any change of control of our company, including a merger or acquisition of our company. For more information regarding the annual performance bonuses received by our named executive officers for 2007 performance, we refer you to the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of this proxy statement.

BioSante 401(k) Savings Plan. We maintain the BioSante 401(k) Savings Plan under which all participants, including executive officers, may voluntarily request that we reduce their pre-tax compensation by up to 100 percent (subject to certain special limitations). We contributed an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount that each participant contributed under this plan, up to a maximum amount allowed by law.

Indemnification Agreements. We have entered into agreements with all of our executive officers under which we are required to indemnify them against expenses, judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred, including expenses of a derivative action, in connection with an actual or threatened proceeding if any of them may be made a party because he or she is or was one of our executive officers. We will be obligated to pay these amounts only if the executive officer acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests. With respect to any criminal proceeding, we will be obligated to pay these amounts only if the executive officer had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The indemnification agreements also set forth procedures that will apply in the event of a claim for indemnification.

Grants of Plan-Based Awards

The following table provides information concerning grants of plan-based awards to each of our named executive officers during the year ended December 31, 2007. Plan-based awards were granted to our named executive officers during 2007 under the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan. The material terms of these awards and the material plan provisions relevant to these awards are described in the footnotes to the table below or in the narrative following the table below. Options were granted to the named executive officers subsequent to December 31, 2007 in January 2008. These options are described in more detail in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of this proxy statement.

Phillip B. Donenberg	01/12/07	50,000	2.775	2.80	109,534

(1) The grant date is the date on which the Compensation Committee met to approve the option grant.

(2) Represents an option granted under the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan, the material terms of which are described in more detail below under the heading BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan. The option has a ten-year term and vests over a three-year period, with one-third of the underlying shares vesting on each of January 12, 2008, January 12, 2009 and January 12, 2010, so long as the individual remains an employee of our company as of such date.

- (3) We set the per share exercise price of stock options granted under the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan at an amount equal to 100 percent of the fair market value of a share of our common stock on the date of grant, which under our plan is defined as the mean between the reported high and low sale prices of our common stock, as then reported by the stock exchange on which our common stock is then listed.

- (4) We refer you to note (2) to the Summary Compensation Table for a discussion of the assumptions made in calculating the grant date fair value of the option awards.

BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan. Under the terms of the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan, our named executive officers, in addition to other employees and individuals, are eligible to receive equity compensation awards, such as stock options, stock awards and stock units. To date, only incentive and non-statutory stock options and stock awards have been granted under the plan. The plan contains both an overall limit on the number of shares of our common stock that may be issued, as well as individual and other grant limits.

Incentive stock options must be granted with a per share exercise price equal to at least the fair market value of a share of our common stock on the date of grant. For purposes of the plan, the fair market value of our common stock is the mean between the reported high and low sale prices of our common stock, as reported by the NASDAQ Stock Market. We set the per share exercise price of all stock options granted under the plan at an amount equal to the fair market value of a share of our common stock on the date of grant.

Except in connection with certain specified changes in our corporate structure or shares, the Compensation Committee may not, without prior approval of our stockholders, seek to effect any re-pricing of any previously granted, underwater option by amending or modifying the terms of the underwater option to lower the exercise price, canceling the underwater option and granting replacement options having a lower exercise price, or other incentive award in exchange, or repurchasing the underwater options and granting new incentive awards under the plan. For purposes of the plan, an option is deemed to be underwater at any time when the fair market value of our common stock is less than the exercise price.

Options will become exercisable at such times and in such installments as may be determined by the Compensation Committee, provided that options may not be exercisable after 10 years from their date of grant. We generally provide for the vesting of stock options in equal annual installments over a three-year period commencing on the one-year anniversary of the date of grant.

Optionees must pay the exercise price of stock options in cash. However, the Compensation Committee may allow payment to be made (in whole or in part) by (1) using a broker-assisted cashless exercise procedure pursuant to which the optionee, upon exercise of an option, irrevocably instructs a broker or dealer to sell a sufficient number of shares of our common stock or loan a sufficient amount of money to pay all or a portion of the exercise price of the option and/or any related withholding tax obligations and remit such sums to us and directs us to deliver stock certificates to be issued upon such exercise directly to such broker or dealer; or (2) using a cashless exercise procedure pursuant to which the optionee surrenders to us shares of our common stock either underlying the option or that are otherwise held by the optionee.

Under the terms of the plan, unless otherwise provided in a separate agreement, if a named executive officer's employment or service with our company terminates for any reason, the unvested portion of the option will immediately terminate and the executive's right to exercise the then vested portion of the option will:

immediately terminate if the executive's employment or service relationship with our company terminated for cause ;

continue for a period of twelve months if the executive's employment or service relationship with our company terminates as a result of the executive's death or disability; or continue for a period of 90 days if the executive's employment or service relationship with our company terminates for any reason, other than for cause or upon death or disability.

As set forth in the plan, the term cause will be as defined in any employment or other agreement or policy applicable to the named executive officer or, if no such agreement or policy exists, will mean (i) dishonesty, fraud, misrepresentation, embezzlement or deliberate injury or attempted injury, in each case related to us or any subsidiary, (ii) any unlawful or criminal activity of a serious nature, (iii) any intentional and deliberate breach of a duty or duties that, individually or in the aggregate, are material in relation to the overall duties, or (iv) any material breach of any employment, consulting, confidentiality or non-compete agreement entered into with us or any subsidiary.

Table of Contents

As described in more detail under the heading Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control, if there is a change in control of our company, then, under the terms of the plan, unless otherwise provided by the Compensation Committee in its sole discretion either in the agreement evidencing an option at the time of grant or at any time after the grant of an option, all outstanding options will become immediately exercisable in full and will remain exercisable for the remainder of their terms, regardless of whether the executive to whom such options have been granted remains in the employ or service of us or any of our subsidiaries.

Other Information Regarding Plan-Based Awards. Under a provision contained in Mr. Simes' employment letter agreement, upon his termination of employment by us without cause, all stock options then held by him would be accelerated and all such options would become fully vested and immediately exercisable for a period of one year after his termination date, as described in more detail under the heading Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control.

Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year End

The following table provides information regarding unexercised stock options and equity incentive plan awards that had not vested for each of our named executive officers and that remained outstanding at December 31, 2007. We did not have any stock awards outstanding at December 31, 2007.

This option vests over a three-year period, one-third of the underlying shares vesting on each of January 12, 2008, January 12, 2009 and January 12, 2010, so long as Mr. Donenberg remains an employee or consultant of our company as of such date.

Options Exercised and Stock Vested During Fiscal Year

None of our named executive officers exercised stock options during the year ended December 31, 2007. We do not have any outstanding stock awards and thus did not have any stock awards vest during the year ended December 31, 2007.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

General. We have entered into employment letter agreements with each of our two named executive officers, Stephen M. Simes and Phillip B. Donenberg, which may require us to provide certain payments to the executive upon a termination of his employment or change in control of our company. Whether a named executive officer receives a payment and the amount of such payment, if applicable, depends upon the triggering event. For more information regarding these agreements, we refer you the discussion under the headings Summary of Cash and Other Compensation Simes Employment Letter Agreement and Summary of Cash and Other Compensation Donenberg Employment Letter Agreement. In addition, our stock plan also provides benefits as a result of a change in control of our company.

Termination by BioSante for Cause. Under the terms of both employment letter agreements, if Mr. Simes or Mr. Donenberg's employment is terminated by us for cause, the executive would be entitled to be paid his annual base salary, car allowance and any out-of-pocket expenses incurred through the date of his termination and any amounts the executive would be entitled to under any company benefit plan. For purposes of the agreements, cause means any of the following: (i) fraud, (ii) theft or embezzlement of our assets, (iii) a violation of law involving moral turpitude, (iv) repeated and willful failure to follow instructions of the Board of Directors provided that the conduct has not ceased or the offense cure within 30 days following written warning from us. The agreements also provide that the executive must abide by certain non-competition provisions for one year after termination for cause. Under the terms of the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan, if Mr. Simes or Mr. Donenberg's employment is terminated by us for cause, the executive's outstanding stock options will immediately terminate and may not then be exercisable.

Termination by BioSante Without Cause. Under the terms of both employment letter agreements, if Mr. Simes or Mr. Donenberg's employment is terminated by us without cause, the executive would be entitled to be paid his annual base salary, car allowance and any out-of-pocket expenses incurred through the date of termination. Additionally, the executive would be entitled to receive:

a severance payment, which would be paid in one lump sum in the case of Mr. Simes and would be paid in 12 equal monthly installments in the case of Mr. Donenberg, equal to, in the case of Mr. Simes, his total compensation over the previous 12 months, including his car allowance, and in the case of Mr. Donenberg, his base salary at the time of termination; continued term life insurance at our expense, which, in the case of Mr. Simes, would be for a period of one year from the date of his termination or the remaining term of his agreement, whichever is longer, and in the case of Mr. Donenberg, would be for a period of one year from the date of his termination, unless in either case the executive obtains full-time employment;

continued participation by the executive and his family at our expense in our group hospitalization health, dental and disability insurance programs, which in the case of Mr. Simes, would be for a period of one year from the date of his termination or the remaining term of his agreement, whichever is longer, and in the case of Mr. Donenberg, would be for a period of one year from the date of his termination, unless in either case the executive becomes eligible to participate in another employer's corresponding group insurance and disability plans; in the case of Mr. Simes, provision of outplacement services and use of an office and reasonable secretarial support for one year, unless Mr. Simes becomes otherwise employed within such period;

reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the executive on behalf of our company; and payment for all unused vacation days accrued to the date of termination.

In addition, in the event we terminate Mr. Simes' employment without cause, all outstanding stock options held by Mr. Simes at such time will become immediately exercisable and he will have one year from the date following his termination of employment to exercise such options. In the event we terminate Mr. Donenberg's employment without cause, all outstanding vested stock options held by Mr. Donenberg at such time will remain exercisable for a period of three months.

Termination by Executive for Good Reason. Under the terms of both employment letter agreements, Mr. Simes or Mr. Donenberg may terminate his agreement upon 30 days written notice to us for good reason. For purposes of the agreements, good reason means (i) assignment of duties inconsistent with his position or a change in responsibilities, title or office, (ii) the failure of us to continue, or the taking of action by us that could adversely affect, benefits plans in which the executive is participating (with some exceptions), (iii) reduction of salary or car allowance or failure to increase salary as provided in the agreement, (iv) in the case of Mr. Simes, any other breach by us of the agreement; or (v) the occurrence of a change in control. With respect to the occurrence of a change in control, the termination for good reason upon a change of control must occur while a change in control transaction is pending (and reasonably expected to close within one year) or within two years following a change in control. If Mr. Simes or Mr. Donenberg terminates his agreement for good reason, then we must provide him the payments and benefits described above under Termination by BioSante Without Cause.

Termination in the Event of Death or Permanent Disability. Both employment letter agreements terminate in the event of the executive's death or permanent disability. In the event of death, the executive's base salary, and in the case of Mr. Simes, his car allowance will be terminated as of the end of the month in which the executive's death occurs. Upon an executive's disability, we can terminate the executive's employment upon 30 days written notice. For purposes of the agreements, disability means an inability, due to illness, accident or any other physical or mental incapacity, to substantially perform the executive's duties for a period of four consecutive months or for a total of six months in any 12 month period. Upon termination of an executive's employment due to disability, the executive will be entitled to receive compensation until the later of (i) the date of termination of employment for disability or (ii) the date upon which the executive begins to receive long-term disability insurance benefits. Under the terms of the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan, in the event the executive's employment is terminated as a result of the executive's death or permanent disability, all outstanding stock options then held by the executive at such time will remain exercisable to the extent then exercisable for a period of six months.

Change in Control. Our named executive officers have received stock options granted under the BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Plan. Under the terms of the plan, such stock options become fully exercisable following a change in control of our company, which is defined under the plan as:
the sale, lease, exchange or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of our company to a corporation that is not controlled by us;
