65 REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Bull Run Corporation as of June 30, 2001 and for the year then ended, and have issued our report thereon dated October 12, 2001, included elsewhere in this Form 10-K. Our audit also included the financial statement schedule of Bull Run Corporation listed in Item 14(a) as to information provided as of and for the year ended June 30, 2001. This schedule is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion based on our audit. We did not audit the financial statements of Gray Communications Systems, Inc. (a corporation in which the Company has a 13% interest), as of December 31, 2000 and for the year then ended, and the financial statements of Rawlings Sporting Goods Company, Inc. (a corporation in which the Company has a 10% interest), as of August 31, 2000 and for the year then ended. Those statements were audited by other auditors whose reports thereon have been furnished to us, and our opinion expressed herein, insofar as it relates to the amounts for the periods ended December 31, 2000 and August 31, 2000 included for Gray Communications Systems, Inc. and Rawlings Sporting Goods Company, Inc., respectively, is based solely on their reports. In our opinion, based on our audit and the reports of other auditors, the financial statement schedule referred to above, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein. /s/ PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS LLP Atlanta, Georgia October 12, 2001 66 REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Bull Run Corporation as of and for the year ended June 30, 2000, for the six months ended June 30, 1999 and for the year ended December 31, 1998, and have issued our report thereon dated September 28, 2000 (except for Note 4 as to which the date is July 26, 2001 and Notes 2 and 10 as to which the date is October 11, 2001), included elsewhere in this Form 10-K. Our audits also included the financial statement schedule of Bull Run Corporation listed in Item 14(a) as to information provided as of and for the year ended June 30, 2000. This schedule is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion based on our audits. The financial statements of Rawlings Sporting Goods Company, Inc., (a corporation in which the Company has a 10% interest), as of August 31, 1999 and 1998 and for the years then ended, have been audited by other auditors whose report has been furnished to us; insofar as our opinion relates to data included for Rawlings Sporting Goods Company, Inc., it is based solely on their report. In our opinion, based on our audits and the report of other auditors, the financial statement schedule referred to above, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein. /s/ ERNST & YOUNG LLP Charlotte, North

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS Board of Directors and Stockholders Gray Communications Systems, Inc. We have audited the consolidated balance sheet of Gray Communications Systems, Inc., as of December 31, 2000 and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented separately herein). These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Gray Communications Systems, Inc., at December 31, 2000, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. As more fully described in Restatement of Financial Statements of Note E, the Company restated certain amounts previously reported as of December 31, 2000, 1999 and 1998, and for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1998. /s/ ERNST & YOUNG LLP Atlanta, Georgia January 29, 2001, except as to Restatement of Financial Statements of Note E as to which the date is October 10, 2001 F-1

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF RAWLINGS SPORTING GOODS COMPANY, INC.: We have audited the consolidated balance sheets of Rawlings Sporting Goods Company, Inc. (a Delaware corporation) and subsidiaries (the Company) as of August 31, 2000 and 1999 and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended August 31, 2000, not presented separately herein. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion. In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Rawlings Sporting Goods Company, Inc. and subsidiaries as of August 31, 2000 and 1999, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended August 31, 2000, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. /s/ ARTHUR ANDERSEN LLP ARTHUR ANDERSEN LLP St. Louis, Missouri November 15, 2000 F-2
