On December 15, 2005, Entertainment Distribution Company, LLC (EDC), an indirect subsidiary of the Company, entered into a letter agreement with John V. Madison specifying the terms under which Mr. Madison will serve as Executive Vice President, Business Development, Sales & Marketing of EDC.

Mr. Madison's initial annual base salary will be $400,000. He will also be eligible to participate in an annual Bonus Plan for each calendar year on terms approved by EDC management. Under the Bonus Plan Mr. Madison may earn a bonus of up to 200% of his base salary based on the amount of EDC's sales to customer's other than Universal Music Group.

Under the letter agreement, on May 31, 2005 Mr. Madison received Profits Interests, allocated among Tier One, Tier Two and Tier Three, as more fully described in EDC's Limited Liability Company Agreement, that represent 5% of EDC's total Profits Interests. These Profits Interests vest as follows: one-third will vest on January 2, 2006, one-third will vest on January 2, 2007 and the final one-third will vest on January 2, 2008; provided that the Profits Interests vest in full upon (1) a Change of Control of EDC (as defined in the letter agreement), (2) Mr. Madison's death or disability or (3) termination by EDC without Cause or by Mr. Madison for Good Reason (as such terms are defined in the letter agreement).

Mr. Madison's letter agreement also contains non-competition and non-solicitation provisions which prohibit him for a period of two years from the termination of his employment from engaging in the CD and DVD manufacturing and physical distribution businesses, soliciting or accepting any EDC customer for purposes of marketing, selling or providing the kinds of products and services provided to customers by EDC, or inducing or attempting to induce any employee of EDC or its affiliates to terminate his or her employment with EDC or its affiliates, among other related prohibitions.
