On March 7, 2006 Cousins Properties Incorporated and subsidiaries (Cousins) recast its unsecured revolving credit facility (Revolver), increasing the size by $75 million to $400 million and extending the maturity date to March 2010, with an additional one year extension at the election of Cousins. The previous credit facility was set to expire in September 2007. The Revolver is being led by Bank of America as Administrative Agent, with Banc of America Securities LLC as Sole Lead Arranger and Sole Book Manager, and includes Commerzbank as Syndication Agent; Wells Fargo and PNC Bank as Co-Documentation Agents; Wachovia Bank as Managing Agent; and Northern Trust, BB&T, Compass Bank, Emigrant Bank, Chevy Chase Bank, US Bank and Allied Irish Bank as participants. The Revolver can be expanded to $500 million under certain circumstances although the availability of the additional capacity is not guaranteed.

The Revolver provides for additional flexibility in some of the financial covenants as compared to the previous facility. The Revolver contains restrictive covenants pertaining to the operations of Cousins, including limitations on: the amount of debt that may be incurred; the sale of assets; transactions with affiliates; dividends and distributions; and the repurchase of outstanding stock. The Revolver also includes certain financial covenants that require, among other things, the maintenance of an unencumbered interest coverage ratio of at least 1.75, a fixed charge coverage ratio of at least 1.50, a leverage ratio of no more than 60%, an unsecured debt ratio of no more than approximately 60%, a secured recourse debt restriction of 15% of total assets, and a minimum stockholders' equity of $445.9 million plus 70% of future net equity proceeds. Additionally, the Revolver imposes restrictions on the level of common and preferred dividends only if the Company's leverage ratio, as defined by the Revolver, is greater than 55% at the end of the preceding taxable year.

Generally interest is calculated under the Revolver based on the then current LIBOR interest rate plus an additional spread based on the ratio of total debt to total assets, as defined by the Revolver. The pricing spread of the old facility versus the Revolver is as follows:

Leverage Ratio	Applicable Spread old facility	Applicable Spread Revolver
≤ 35%	.90%	.80%
>35% but ≤ 45%	1.00%	.90%
>45% but ≤ 50%	1.10%	1.00%
>50% but ≤ 55%	1.35%	1.15%
> 55%	1.50%	1.30%

The Revolver also includes customary events of default, including, but not limited to, the failure to pay any interest or principal when due, the failure to perform covenants of the credit agreement, incorrect or misleading representations or warranties, insolvency or bankruptcy, change of control, the occurrence of certain ERISA events and certain judgment defaults. The amounts outstanding under the Revolver may be accelerated upon certain events of default. Simultaneous with the recast of the Revolver, Cousins also entered into an unsecured $100 million construction facility (Construction Facility), which is being utilized to fund the construction of Terminus 100. Terminus 100 is a 651,000 square foot office and retail project under development in the Buckhead district of Atlanta, Georgia. The Construction Facility is being led by Bank of America as Administrative Agent; with Banc of America Securities LLC as Sole Lead Arranger and Sole Book Manager; and includes Commerzbank as Syndication Agent; Wells Fargo and PNC Bank as Co-Documentation Agents; Wachovia Bank as Managing Agent; and Northern Trust, BB&T, Emigrant Bank, US Bank and Allied Irish Bank as participants. The Construction Facility has the same initial maturity date and extension option, financial covenants and other material provisions as the Revolver.

Edgar Filing: COUSINS PROPERTIES INC - Form 8-K

Amounts outstanding under the previous credit facility were paid in full upon entering into the Revolver and the Construction Facility and approximately $202 million and $27 million, respectively, were drawn upon each at closing. A copy of the Revolver and the Construction Facility are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 and are incorporated into this Current Report on Form 8-K by reference.
