PART II
INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

Tutogen Medical, Inc. (the Company) hereby incorporates the following documents, previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, by reference:

- (a) The Company's latest Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005;
- (b) All documents filed by the Company pursuant to Section 13, and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 since the end of the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005; and
- (c) The Company's Articles of Incorporation authorizes the issuance of 30,000,000 shares of Common Stock with a par value of $.01 per share. The holders of the shares of Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters on which stockholders are entitled or permitted to vote. Such holders may not cumulate votes in the election of directors. The holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive such dividends as may lawfully be declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor and to share pro rata in any other distribution to the holders of Common Stock. The holders of Common Stock are entitled to share ratably in the assets of the Company remaining after the payment of liabilities in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company. There are no preemptive rights, conversion rights, redemption or sinking fund provisions or fixed dividend rights with respect to the Common Stock.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

The Company's shares of Common Stock are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Item 5. Interest of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article VI, Sections A, B, C and D of the By-Laws of the Company provide for the indemnification by the Company of each director, officer, and employee of the Company against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, to which he or they are made a part by reason of his/her being or having been a director of the Company or a director of such corporation, including any action brought by the Company or any such corporation. Each director of the Company on being elected or appointed shall be deemed to have contracted with the Company on the terms of the foregoing indemnity.

Table of Contents

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

None

Item 8. Exhibits.

The following are filed as Exhibits to this Registration Statement

Exhibits:

- 4.2 A copy of the Company's 2006 Incentive and Non-Statutory Stock Option Plan approved by shareholders on March 13, 2006.

- 5 Opinion of Williams Schifino Mangione & Steady, P.A. as to the shares of Common Stock being registered.

- 24.1 Consent of Williams Schifino Mangione & Steady, P.A. (filed as Exhibit 5).

- 24.2 Consent of Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent auditors.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.
 - (2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (3) to remove for registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
 - (4) that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant, pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person, in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
