PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, Diebold, Incorporated (the Company) had been in discussions with the Office of the Chief Accountant (the OCA) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) with regard to its practice of recognizing certain revenue on a bill and hold basis in its North America business segment. As a result of those discussions, the Company determined that its previous, long-standing method of accounting for bill and hold transactions was in error, representing a misapplication of generally accepted accounting principles, and that it would discontinue its use of bill and hold as a method of revenue recognition in its North America and International businesses.

The Company will correct for that revenue previously recognized on a bill and hold basis by now recognizing that revenue upon customer acceptance of products at a customer location. Within the North America business segment, when the Company is contractually responsible for installation, customer acceptance will be upon completion of installation of all of the items at a job site and the Company s demonstration that the items are in operable condition. In those instances when the Company is not contractually responsible for the installation, the Company will continue to recognize revenue upon shipment of the products to a customer location.

The Company s corrected method of recognizing revenue will be adopted retroactively by restating previously issued financial statements and comes after an in-depth analysis and review with its independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG LLP, the Audit Committee of the Company s Board of Directors and the OCA. Management of the Company has concluded that the Company s financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003; the quarterly data in each of the quarters for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005; and the quarter ended March 31, 2007, should no longer be relied upon.

Additionally, the Company has announced that as a result of the SEC s ongoing investigation, the Company and the Audit Committee, in consultation with their outside advisors, have been reviewing other accounting items, including various balance sheet accounts such as prepaids, accruals, capitalized assets, deferred revenue, and reserves within both the Company s North America and International businesses. This review is not yet complete.

Based upon the current status of its review of all of these accounting items, the Company currently anticipates restating its financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the selected financial data for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, solely through the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. In addition, the Company currently intends to restate its financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 through the filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2008.

Accordingly, until the review of these other accounting items is completed, the Company will be unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2008 within the prescribed time period. The delays could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2007, September 30, 2007 and March 31, 2008 and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 will be filed as soon as practicable after resolution of these issues.
