The following communication was distributed by email to owners of shares of Class B-1 common stock of Chicago Mercantile Exchange Holdings Inc. on or about March 25, 2003:

Hello,

I'm Bill Salatich from the Chicago Mercantile Exchange.

I am running for my fourth term as a director on our Board. I recently mailed you a letter which I hope you have received by now. This e-mail is to underscore my enthusiasm and desire to continue to serve as one of your directors. I have been a part of our transformation from the beginning and would like to remain on board as our evolution continues.

I very much appreciate you considering me, Bill Salatich, as your vote in this year's Class B-1 election. Thank you.
