Exhibit A Transcript of portions of earnings conference call held on April 22, 2009

Exhibit A

On Wednesday, April 22, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. Pacific Time, eBay Inc. (eBay) hosted an earnings conference call to discuss eBay s financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2009. The following are excerpted portions from the transcript of the call.

[portions omitted]

John Donahoe (eBay CEO): Last week s announcement of our tender offer for Gmarket significantly strengthens our position in Korea. Gmarket is an innovative, competitive platform and the combination of IAC, our current Korean marketplace business, and Gmarket gives us a powerful foothold for long-term growth, both in Korea and in the Asia region more broadly.

[portions omitted]

Bob Swan (eBay CFO): We believe our agreement to acquire Gmarket will strengthen our position in Asia and our intent to conduct an IPO with Skype will focus the portfolio on our two core businesses.

[portions omitted]

Doug Anmuth (Barclays Capital): Bob, can you give us a little bit more color on the comments you made on the back half of the year, and in particular the comments on I guess GMV and TPV stabilizing, but you ll obviously be on easier comps there in the back half. And then also, does that include Gmarket being slightly accretive as well for the year? Thanks.

[portions omitted]

Bob Swan: The last thing I d say is that [guidance provided on the earnings conference call] does not really capture the impact of the Gmarket acquisition that we expect to conclude at the end of this quarter and as we indicated last week [in the eBay Inc. investor/analyst conference call held on April 16, 2009] will add $125.0 million to $130.0 million in top line growth in the second half and be modestly accretive as well.
