Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective November 9, 2010, June P. Howard, senior vice president of Financial Services and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), has assumed the additional role of chief accounting officer of Aflac Incorporated. Howard assumes the role previously held by senior vice president Ralph A. Rogers Jr., who is transitioning into retirement.

Howard, age 44, joined Aflac in 2009 as a vice president of IFRS implementation and was promoted to senior vice president in March 2010. Shortly after joining the Aflac team, she assumed responsibility for financial reporting, investment accounting and accounting policy. Prior to joining Aflac, she was head of IFRS and US GAAP reporting for ING's US operations and was the director of corporate and investment accounting policy at The Hartford. Additionally, she was a senior manager at Ernst & Young, where she began her career and subsequently served in different capacities for more than nine years.

Howard graduated magna cum laude from the University of Alabama in Huntsville with a bachelor's degree in business administration. She is a certified public accountant and a member of the CFA Institute, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Alabama Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Atlanta Society of Financial Analysts.
