Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 25, 2006, Airgas, Inc. (the Company) announced that it amended and restated its senior credit facility with a syndicate of banks, including Bank of America, N.A., as US Agent, The Bank of Nova Scotia, as Canadian Agent, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Syndication Agent, The Bank of New York, The Bank of Tokyo- Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd., PNC Bank, N.A., and certain other lenders. The $1.6 billion senior unsecured credit facility (the Credit Agreement), effective July 25, 2006, consists of a US$966 million and C$40 million (the US dollar equivalent of $34 million) revolving credit line and two deferred draw term loans totaling $600 million. The Company intends to use borrowings under the revolving credit line for working capital, acquisitions and general corporate purposes. The $100 million term loan may only be used to refinance the Company's 7.75% medium-term notes due on September 15, 2006, and the $500 million term loan may only be used to finance certain contemplated acquisitions. If the contemplated acquisitions are not completed, the outstanding commitment for the unused portion of the $500 million term loan will expire in May 2007. The revolving credit line matures on July 25, 2011. The term loans will be payable in periodic installments from the date of drawing on the term loans through July 25, 2011.

The Credit Agreement amends and restates the credit agreement dated January 15, 2005, (the 2005 Agreement), which would have matured on January 14, 2010 and permitted the Company to borrow up to the equivalent of $428 million. The Company's initial borrowings under the Credit Agreement total $191 million. The current interest rate on borrowings under the Credit Agreement is LIBOR plus 75 basis points, which is down from LIBOR plus 95 basis points under the 2005 Agreement. The interest rate under the Credit Agreement may increase or decrease based on the Company's credit rating.

The covenants under the Credit Agreement are generally similar to those in the 2005 Agreement and include certain leverage ratios, which could potentially restrict additional borrowings. The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default, including nonpayment and breach of covenants. In the event of default, repayment of borrowings under the Credit Agreement may be accelerated.

Under the Credit Agreement, the Company's domestic subsidiaries guarantee the U.S. borrowings and Canadian borrowings, and the Company's foreign subsidiaries also guarantee the Canadian borrowings. The guarantees are full and unconditional and are made on a joint and several basis. The Company has pledged 100% of the stock of its domestic subsidiaries and 65% of the stock of its foreign subsidiaries as surety for its obligations under the agreement. The Credit Agreement provides for the release of the guarantees and collateral if the Company attains an investment grade credit rating and a similar release on all other debt.

The Company's press release describing the Credit Agreement is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
